

cannot permit the present condition to continue indefinitely. Germany has proved that it is able to endure without the Ruhr, but France is the heavy sufferer. Its black finances are closed on account of a lack of coal, and the military operations in the Ruhr cost $60,000,000 francs (about $30,000,000 monthly).

France Must Quit Ruhr—Cuno.
BERLIN, March 22.—In a speech in the town hall in Munich this evening Chancellor Cuno said that any discussion regarding the termination of the conflict with France must proceed upon a basis of unconditional evacuation of the invaded territory. So long as the regime of lawlessness was not definitely abandoned fulfillment of the treaty obligations was unthinkable.

Germany could reach an understanding with a France that desired peace and reconstruction, the chancellor continued, but never with a France that aimed at the Ruhr and the Rhine and purposed to destroy Germany.

Object to Buffer State.
Deciding that a great majority of the people on the left bank of the Rhine did not wish to form a buffer state to guarantee the security of France, he contended that disarmed Germany needed security more than France with her great land forces and her great air fleet. The government had never asked anybody to mediate in the Ruhr controversy, but had received many feelers. These had all been examined, but it was found in every case that the mediators lacked sufficient authority or their proposals were contrary to Germany's honor and common sense.

With every readiness to reach a reasonable and honorable understanding, such feelers, the chancellor declared, could not be entertained.

PRIVATE TIP TO BURGLARS: NEVER LET A SAFE DROP

Burglars who attempted to steal the safe of Paul Marchese, a photographer at 1234 Roosevelt road, found late last night that they were not strong enough to get away with it. The safe weighed approximately 300 pounds. The burglars, who had gained entrance by jumping a door lock, started to lower the safe through a rear window, but it dropped, and the crash attracted neighbors, frightening the raiders away. The Maxwell street police were summoned and Lieut. William Stapleton and his squad began a search for the men.

The safe, when opened by Marchese, was found to contain a photographic lens valued at $150 and $300. In addition, it contained some jewelry.

Over 1,300,000 British Reported Out of Work

LONDON, March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The ministry of labor gives the number of registered unemployed in Great Britain at present as more than 1,300,000. However, the country has been unusually free from serious labor disputes, mainly because the big trade unions have not been financially able to carry on strikes.

BERLIN POLICE JAIL 20 IN PLOT OF NATIONALISTS

Monarchists' Uprising or Ruhr Coup Planned.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
BERLIN, March 22.—Twenty members of the German National party were jailed and three reichstag members, who claim their allegiance to this party, are under a threat of arrest following a raid on the party's headquarters and the seizure of compromising documents, indicating the preparation of a Nationalist coup for active resistance in the Ruhr.

The sensational raid was made following the arrest and questioning of Lieut. Roessbach. The police declare that he disclosed extensive plans for the organization of armed Nationalist bands. The activities of the former Reichstag member are believed to be responsible for the discovery of the plot.

Purpose of Plot in Doubt.

The police are not quite clear whether the purpose of the plot was to begin guerrilla warfare in the Ruhr or to attempt to overthrow the present government by force of arms. Either plan, they point out, would lead to eventual revolutionary activity.

The men arrested include Maj. Schroeder, leader of the organization department of the party; Zur Nedden, editor of the party organ, the Deutsch Zeitung; three section chiefs, Herr Schulz from the suburb of Karlsruhe, Herr Geyer from the Wilmsdorf district, and Herr Kinsel from the suburb of Schoenberg; Capt. Kuhlmann, Maj. Stettin, and Prof. Dannecker, all from Potsdam. The names of the others taken were not given.

Reichstag Members Named.

The reichstag members are Albrecht von Graef, Richard Waile, and Maj. Wilhelm von Henning. These three men claim immunity as reichstag members.

Telephone reports to the police from Basel, Habsburgstadt, and Magdeburg indicate that raids in those cities yielded many valuable documents, giving evidence of the widespread character of the plot.

Hog, Buried in Straw, Lives Five Months on Its Own Fat

CLEVELAND, O., March 22.—(Special.)—A hog weighing 250 pounds buried under a strawstack since last October was found alive today. It had lived for five months without food or water and now weighs less than 100 pounds.

Fear French Planes

The British are reported to be alarmed over the fact that the French have an air fleet eight times as strong as theirs, so that England and Wales could be bombed from the air with impunity any time the French wished to do so. Vigorous protests are being made to the government that the British air defenses are entirely too inadequate, and that the present friendship with France may not last. The shaded area on the map shows the portion of the British Isles that is particularly vulnerable to attacks from the air.

FRANCE HIT IN HOUSE OF LORDS BY BIRKENHEAD

BY JOHN STEELE.
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.]
LONDON, March 22.—(Tribune Radio.)—English temper is rising rapidly against the government for its neglect of air defense in view of the immense air program of France, which is now frankly regarded here as directed only against Great Britain, and preliminary steps are being taken for the organization of an air league on the lines of the navy league for the purpose of keeping the government up to the mark in this essential feature of national defense.

Until the last day or two the courtesy of France and the memory of the war alliance has prevented a public statement of what every one is thinking—that the French air menace could only be aimed at England—but the ice was broken in the house of lords last night by Lord Birkenhead, who follows up today with an interview in which he says:

"The time has come when an air league should be formed to educate public opinion on the necessity of air power. Nothing but constant pressure in parliament and by the public can make the government cease talking and begin to act."

"A silent feature of last night's debate was the admission by the air ministry that we are today helpless in regard to France. She could tomorrow, if she wished, destroy without warning London and almost every center of our industrial population."

"I do not suggest and neither do I believe that this country will be reduced to be at the mercy of any other power, whether friendly or unfriendly, and I think many people are becoming weary at the parrot-like repetitions of the friendship of France from some members of the government. I, too, hope the same opinion in both France and England recognizes that the interests of both countries imperatively demand permanent peace and good understanding, but I will not bury my head in the sand and ignore the fact that in an overwhelming number of French generals a dislike and distrust for England is being daily incited."

Test of Friendship.
"Friendship between nations and likewise between men can be proved and tested both by deeds and words, but no friendship is worth having which is made by closing the eyes to patent facts and these are two:

"1. France's engaged policy, which every day becomes more clearly revealed as political, is a policy which this country profoundly disapproves;

"2. Many most influential writers in France daily are indulging in sneers and menaces at the expense of this country."

"And I am certain that the people of our country are asking themselves very seriously how it is that France, which pays nothing like the taxation we pay, and which has no unemployed problem, can afford to make this prodigious expenditure in her air force at a time when she utterly refuses to pay a penny of the capital or interest to reduce her immense debt to the United States."

Britain Wants to Be Paid.
"I do not for a moment believe the British empire, taken as a whole, will accept the suggestion that we pay all our debts and receive nothing from our debtors."

"There is one further consideration. Also, why are these preparations being made. What is the peril that makes it necessary for France to be eight times stronger in the air than we. The talk of German aircraft construction is more moonshine and invention."

Lord Birkenhead, who was the Lord Chancellor during the Lloyd George administration, is one of the most clever politicians in England, with an unerring ear for the popular slogan. The fact that he has come out in this direct fashion against France is evidence that he has strong public support.

COURT UPHOLDS LAW UNDER WHICH FOSTER IS TRIED

Defense Loses 10 Points of Protest; Gains None

BY PHILIP KINSLEY.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 22.—(Special.)—Ten points raised by Attorney Frank F. Walsh today in his argument to the court to direct the jury to acquit William Z. Foster of charges of having violated the anti-Communism law were swept aside late this afternoon by Judge Charles E. Wilson, who ruled that sufficient evidence had been presented by the state to hold the case go to the jury. Judge Wilson also held the criminal syndicalism constitutional under recent Kansas decisions.

The Walsh argument and the ruling came after the state had rested its case. Walsh had asked the jury to acquit Foster on the ground that the anti-Communism law was unconstitutional. He also asked the jury to acquit Foster on the ground that the evidence was insufficient to prove that Foster had violated the law.

COURT UPHOLDS LAW UNDER WHICH

St. Joseph, Mich., March 22.—(Special.)—Ten points raised by Attorney Frank P. Walsh today in his argument to the court to direct the acquittal of William Z. Foster of the charge of having violated the anti-sedition law were swept aside late this afternoon by Judge Charles E. White, who ruled that sufficient evidence had been presented by the state to have the case go to the jury. Judge White also held the criminal syndicalism law constitutional under recent Kansas decisions.

The Walsh argument and the ruling after the state had rested its case on reading excerpts from the "theses and resolutions" of the third international of the communist party, a set of principles, it is contended, to which American section was bound, and which Foster subscribed to and aided in the dissemination of.

Defense Opens Today.
The defense will open in the morning and the case is expected to be completed next week. Whether or not the state will take the stand was the subject of a conference tonight.

"We have given enough evidence to the jury," said Assistant Attorney General G. L. Smith tonight. "The best thing that Americans can do with these people is to put them in prison. We have here the brains of the communist party and they will be a hard time to get new leadership if we put these people in jail. The American people little realize the slow poisoning of the nation by the communists. It has crept into the labor unions, it seeks to destroy the sources of our strength. This is the Russian revolution extended to America. Now the time to stamp it out."

Campania of "Martyrdom."
The points raised by Mr. Walsh indicate clearly the defense and also foretell the campaign of martyrdom that is expected in this country if the state of Michigan decides to put Foster on trial.

The issue of free speech and the right of free assembly is the first point raised. This conviction and punishment of Foster, it is declared, would violate not only the Michigan constitution but also the federal constitution in several ways. It is further argued that the state of Michigan has no right to attempt to limit, induce, incite, or coerce any acts of crime, sabotage, violence, or any unlawful methods of terrorism as a means of accomplishing industrial and political reforms.

There was no waving of the red flag. There was no open distribution of literature. Even if the communist party does advocate violence, it is argued, there was no violation of Michigan law, as this party was not in Michigan.

Overrules Pleas.
Judge White disposed of all this in minutes, not even requiring the state to answer. Mr. Walsh argued while this was a communist conspiracy in Michigan, and that even if Foster attended, this did not mean that he advocated in America all the violent methods in the program of the third international. The court paid attention to the fact that members of the party agreed to submit to discipline and that the theses and resolutions formed the principles of the party.

Read to the jury from the communist pamphlet adopted at Moscow. He showed that they advocated destruction of the capitalist system by all means at our disposal and means of arms."

Listen Attentively.
The jurors were particularly attending the reading of a section which said that the communist party was to be the enemy of the proletariat, to be subjected to sabotage, disloyalty, and death, relentless, crushing their estates confiscated. It added that the formation of rural soviets was the duty of the communist party. The communist party calls the struggle for the final struggle of the proletariat. Workers must

Continue Sale Today

Mrs. Potter Palmer will open her residence at 1350 Lake Shore drive tomorrow morning from 9:30 until 11:30 o'clock for a marked down sale of articles made by French war widows, which have been on sale for the last two days at Mrs. Palmer's. About $2,500 has been made at the sale and the Countess Francois de Bremond D'Ar, who brought the articles to this country, is well pleased with its success, but is desirous of selling everything because she has paid duty on the things and so does not wish to take them back to France with her. They will be sold tomorrow morning at great reduction.

SUICIDE BY GIRL

An effort at suicide in the Illinois Central railroad station at Randolph street and Michigan avenue was thwarted last night, when Miss Ethel White, 850 Cornelia street, a clerk at the station cigar stand, forced a glass of milk down the unwilling throat of Miss Grace Scherffus, 18 years old, 1651 Mobile avenue, who had taken lodgings.

A typewritten note, which had been torn up, was found near the girl's apartment. Perched together, they led police to the belief that the girl had been driven to her act by a love affair which threatened her friendship with a girl chum, Miss Scherffus had been missing from her home since March 14.

Mrs. Carl E. Akeley, wife of the famous naturalist and big game hunter, yesterday charged that her husband had tried to kill her and destroy himself. She made the accusation during a hearing of her suit for divorce before Judge Walter P. Steffen.

After tying her to a bed in a New York apartment, Akeley turned on the gas and lay down beside her to await death, she said. Hotel attaches saved them, she added.

Changes Desertion Charge.

Mrs. Akeley had charged the naturalist with desertion in answer to similar accusations made by him. At the last moment she swept aside this charge and filed an amended bill based on accusations of cruelty. Akeley, it is said, waited in the nearby offices of his attorney, Gustave E. Beery, challenging Mrs. Akeley to offer proof of desertion.

Reports of the couple's African exploring expeditions have been the subject of much gossip. Mrs. Akeley's escape from death when Mrs. Akeley, equally famous as a hunter, shot down a bull elephant which was rushing to trample her husband. "Despite this, in December, 1917, Mr. Akeley slapped my face and choked me," declared Mrs. Akeley in answer to queries by her attorney, W. H. Lawton. "I accompanied him on expeditions in 1905, 1906, and 1909, as well as on subsequent occasions."

Tells of Gas Episode.

"In May, 1917, while we were stopping in a New York hotel just previous to Mr. Akeley's departure for Africa, we engaged in an argument which reached its climax when he threw me upon the bed, tied me with ropes, and turned on the gas in an attempt to kill both of us. We were rescued in the nick of time."

In February, 1918, she declared, Akeley struck her and knocked off her glasses. "Shortly after the last episode I left Mr. Akeley and went to another hotel, penniless and without friends," she added. "I was compelled to sell some elephant tusks, trophies of earlier trips to Africa, to buy food. Later my furniture went the same way. Mr. Akeley has not contributed to my support since."

Decree to Be Signed Today.

Under the terms of the decree, which will be signed today, Judge Steffen indicated, Mrs. Akeley will receive $250 a month as long as Akeley, curator of the American Museum of Natural History, receives an annual salary in excess of $5,000. Should his income be reduced the alimony will be cut to $225 monthly.

Mrs. Sally Waters, with whom Mrs. Akeley is stopping at 5218 Kimbark avenue, corroborated Mrs. Akeley's charges. She said she had learned of Akeley's alleged cruelty from his wife.

Rochester University Gets Original Home Sweet Home

Rochester, N. Y., March 22.—The University of Rochester has just come into ownership of the original manuscript of the song "Home, Sweet Home." It was announced tonight. The manuscript was bought by Hiram W. Sibley of this city at the recent dispersal sale of the library of Mrs. Luther Livingston in New York City.

FRENCH CABINET
BARS UNDRAPED
WOMEN ON STAGE

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)
PARIS, March 22.—The cabinet today decided to prohibit the appearance of scantily clad women on the stage henceforth.

It is understood that Premier Poincaré acted on representations made by prominent Americans interviewed recently, who pointed out that the prevalent custom of presenting semi-naked women on the stage was being used adversely to France by foreign propagandists as indicative of loose morals and immorality. The decision affects big music halls like the Casino de Paris, Folies Bergere, Plicier's Palace show, and Mayol, who have increased the gate receipts in direct proportion to the amount of nudity revealed.

L. R. STEEL DIES
AS RECEIVERSHIP
ACTION IS BEGUN

Toledo, O., March 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—Leonard R. Steel of Buffalo, nationally known business man, died from natural causes on a New York Central train entering the Union depot yards here early this morning, according to Coroner Charles J. Henseler, who conducted a post-mortem examination. Death was caused by a ruptured blood vessel in the brain, Coroner Henseler found.

Mr. Steel's body was dispatched to his home in Buffalo. Mr. Steel's death came while he was enroute to Chicago after conferences with Pittsburgh and Cleveland financiers in an effort to raise $1,000,000 which, his associates said, he believed would prevent his firm from going into receivership. His efforts to raise the money were futile, it was said, and giving up in despair, Mr. Steel started for Chicago to rest.

WOMAN IS HELD FOR SLAYING OF
N. Y. CONTRACTOR

New York, March 22.—(Special.)—Mrs. Anna Buzzi, recently released on bail after being held as a material witness in the murder of Frederick Schneider, a Bronx contractor, was arrested early today and directly accused of the crime. The technical charge against her is homicide.

Her brother-in-law, William Turc, a taxi driver, also was arrested today. Tracing the ownership of the revolver found in Schneider's automobile beside his body has definitely connected Mrs. Buzzi with the murder, the police allege.

The revolver came into the possession of her brother-in-law, Turc, two days before the murder, and it was given, according to Turc, to Mrs. Buzzi at her request.

Early Morning Loop Fire
Causes Damage of $25,000

Fire in the four story building at 183 West Lake street early this morning caused damage estimated at $25,000 to two electrical concerns. The first floor is occupied by the Electrical Dealers' Supply company and the second as a storage space by the Metropolitan Electrical Supply company of 178 West Lake street. The flames were confined to the two floors.

MRS. FOX READS
LOVE DIARY, HOPE
IN $250,000 SUITCites Endearing Passages
Penned by Husband.

Pages from the diary of Carleton Fox, teeming with expression of love for his girl wife, were read to Judge Kichham Scanlan's "beautyproof" jury yesterday by the wife, Mrs. Gladys G. Fox. Upon the diary she rests her hopes of recovering a quarter of a million dollars damages from Albert Fuchs Sr., her father-in-law, who, she alleges, lured her husband from his home and family by threats of dishonor.

He Teaches German to Gladys.

Some of the passages from the diary, as read by Mrs. Fox, were:
"Feb. 31, 1916.—Prepared a German lesson for Gladys. She is getting on in fine style. It will be but a few months before she is able to speak quite rapidly and correctly. The little casual means more to me every day. How foolish for her to think that my father would influence my feelings to ward her."

"April 25, 1916.—A day spent without seeing Gladys is a day not spent at all. I am going to love her more constantly, a thing which I think is impossible to do. Called on Mr. Vincent today and thanked him for bringing me into Christian Science. I am going to realize the value of this."

Mr. Vincent, it was disclosed during the hearing, is a Christian Science practitioner.

"April 28, 1916.—Never before have I felt so supremely happy. The realization of my dreams will come before we realize it."

"Living for Each Other."

"July 2, 1916.—My first Sunday at home, and it is a hot one. Albert called for me and seems to be quite peevish. Will come to this evening. Neither he nor any one else can interfere with our happiness, though."

"Aug. 20, 1916.—Yesterday's little shadow made me realize how close Glad and I have really grown together. It is wonderful to think that we are just living for each other, and to make each other happy. How little would money and wealth mean if this were not the case? I can truly say that I am entirely happy now."

"I told my father that life with my wife was intolerable," admitted young Fox in his testimony. "The chief trouble was Betsy, our daughter. She had one partially paralyzed arm. After much discussion with Mrs. Fox, an X-ray of the arm was made and we were told the arm would eventually recover its strength. No improvement was noticed for six weeks and Mrs. Fox told me she had a Christian Science practitioner. I gave her twenty-four hours to consent to medical treatment and she finally agreed."

VICE AT MINIMUM I AM ELECTED, LUEDEK asserts

Meetings Chicago
Needs Regenerator.

Commercialized vice is not an issue in the campaign because no candidate has dared pledge himself to permit conditions as have been revealed in Chicago.

Arthur C. Lueder, Republican candidate for mayor, told three large meetings last night, two in the city and one in the Forty-second ward.

"I do not promise to stamp out all vice from Chicago," he said, "but I will endeavor to keep such vice as can be kept at a minimum, and that is what I pledge myself to do. Commercialized vice can be and must be wiped out."

"Most Men Only." His Pledge.

When he elected mayor, to appoint the heads of all the city departments, I shall appoint the best men I can find, and I promise that the heads will not be tied by political considerations. His instructions were to wipe out commercialized vice, and that is what I pledge myself to do.

"I believe that what the people want is a business man for mayor," he said. "I believe they want a man who will devote his time to his duties as mayor and not to building up a political machine. What this city needs is not a politician, but a regenerator. It needs a man who will build a bigger and a better Chicago."

"I have had thirty-two years' experience in the real estate business in this city and I know every section of it, its needs, and its problems. I am not a political expert, nor am I a politician. I have been in the business, not talking about them. Since I became postmaster of Chicago I have brought the postoffice from seventh to the first floor in efficiency. It has been said that I was the best postmaster the city ever had. I do not make that claim, but I do say that if I am elected mayor I will try to be the best mayor Chicago ever had."

Crowds Duly Weather.

Despite the unfavorable weather, there was a large attendance both at the Twenty-second ward and at the Forty-second ward meetings. At the Twenty-second ward meeting, William E. Dever spoke a full hour and a few nights ago, he had been in the city and was very well received.

HOW HE STANDS

LUEDEK FOR MAYOR CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

The letter is self-explanatory. The Tribune asked editorially what was the position of the two mayoralty candidates on the question of huge fees paid realty experts. This is Mr. Lueder's prompt answer.

DRAINAGE BOARD WILL BEAUTIFY DISPOSAL PLANTS

Enhance Property by Parks and Links.

Numerous parks, playgrounds, and golf courses—in addition to those already provided for—will dot the city, if plans incorporating them and submitted to the sanitary district of Chicago yesterday are approved.

The supplementary system of parks and other recreation features was recommended by George M. Wiener, consulting engineer of the sanitary district. The aim, he indicated, is to compensate for the "sentimental" damage done to property adjacent to sewage disposal stations.

"When the land surrounding the sewage disposal stations is left a patch of prairie and weeds, the presence of the station is bound to minimize the value of nearby property," said Mr. Wiener. "A sentimental objection is created. Citizens could find no objection to stations, which are to be thoroughly deodorized, if they were covered with ivy and surrounded by parks and playgrounds."

The sanitary district should strive for beauty in its work, and there is no more harm in the district using the money of the taxpayers to improve property than there is in the park board doing so.

"These sewage disposal plants should not be objectionable to the nose or eye. Under the plan I have recommended, neighborhood values would be increased. It is a plan that has been in use in England some time."

The sanitary district of Chicago has started a $100,000,000 program for artificial sewage disposal. If the agitation initiated by the state of Wisconsin against further diversion of Lake Michigan water through the drainage canal achieves its end, it will be necessary to enlarge upon the artificial disposal system.

Platinum Assaying $569 to Ton in the Caver of Alene

Caver of Alene, Idaho, March 22.—Discovery of platinum and iridium in the Caver "Alene" mining district in commercial quantities was announced today by officers of mining companies, who said plans had been made to erect a concentrator here to handle the ore. It was said it assays as high as $569 to the ton.

MARGARET HALEY AT DEVER RALLY RAPS BRUNDAGE

Judge Objects to Lueder
"Wearing Same Halo."

Margaret Haley, business representative of the Chicago Teachers' federation, assailed Lueder's mayoralty campaign and attacked the offices of the attorney general and the state's attorney yesterday afternoon in an address before a mass meeting of teachers in the Olympic theater.

Judge Dever, Democratic candidate for mayor, who followed Miss Haley on the speaking program, advocated public ownership and operation of traction utilities, declared he would, if elected, "weed out" the board of education, and asserted he strenuously objected to his opponent appearing "under the same halo with me."

Remnants of the old Thompson machine constitute one-third of the force behind Lueder, said Miss Haley. "There is an apparent effort to scrap the school investigation now in the interests of political expediency. Before they can do that they will have to scrap the teachers, too, or scrap with them, for we are responsible for this investigation and we do not propose to let it die."

"We will not be a party to this conspiracy of silence. At the present time persons who were subsumed as witnesses before the grand jury are under orders not to appear 'until after the election.' The defendants are trying to have the indictments quashed because they were signed by the attorney general. They claim he never properly came into the case, and that the state's attorney never properly got out. If they win freedom on this technicality, the attorney general and the state's attorney will be responsible."

Speech by Dever.

Miss Haley's address was broken at times by long applause from the about 3,000 teachers present, and the appearance of Judge Dever also brought much hand-clapping.

"There is not much to be said on the subject of public ownership and operation of traction utilities," said Judge Dever. "We have had fifty years of a private ownership. It appears to be it is all settled by the price. The public is willing to buy, the owners to sell. I don't think any citizen wants to try to try to put men and women on the subject of compensation, and certainly we don't want to buy any water."

"I want to say to the teachers that I have always been with them and always will be. The mayor's power with the board of education is entirely appointive. All I can promise to do is to try to put men and women on the board who will serve the schools best."

Tours West Side.

Judge Dever toured the west side last night, and spoke before seven meetings.

"I'm still looking for a competitor," said the judge. "I want to make it a peppy fight, but the men on our side of the fence seem to be the only ones with the pep."

H. H. KOHLSAT FELICITATED ON 70TH BIRTHDAY

New York, March 22.—[Special.]—Herman H. Kohlsaat, former owner of the Chicago Record-Herald and friend of five successive presidents of the United States—McKinley, Roosevelt, Taft, Wilson, and Harding—was 70 years old today. From all over the country there came congratulations by mail and telegram, to the Baltimore, where Mr. Kohlsaat now makes his home.

At noon he was the guest of the editorial staff of the New York Times at a luncheon. There were no formal speeches, but Rolfe Ogden, editor of the Times, informally extended the best wishes of the staff to one who had contributed so much to his profession. Mr. Kohlsaat made a brief reply.

Adolph S. Ochs, publisher, telegraphed from Chattanooga, regretting that he could not be present, and adding:

"I know no man of whom it can be more truthfully said: 'None knew him but to love him, nor named him but to praise.' May health and happiness be his lot for many more years of useful life."

NEW PAVING JOB GIVEN TO WHITE, FAHERY FRIEND

Clock like regularity which has characterized the award of big paving jobs to the White-Paving company, whose president, Michael White, is a friend of Michael J. Faherty, president of the board of local improvements, functioned again yesterday when the White company was given the contract to pave the Congress avenue extension from Randolph to Correll street. The White concern's bid was $948,496.

The bid of the American Asphalt company was $992,163 and that of the R. F. Conway company $998,445. Two specifications entering into the bid, which a subcommittee of the council finance committee is expected to look into, call for 40,000 yards of excavation and 34,000 yards of fill. The White company bid $2.42 a cubic yard on the former and $2.25 on the latter.

Paving experts say the figure for filling is too high, because dirt taken in excavating can be used to fill old basements left by the removal of houses from the street line.

CUNNEA PLEDGES ONE CENT PHONE RATE IF ELECTED

For the first time in his political career William A. Cunnea, Socialist candidate for mayor, addressed a crowd in a loop theater at noon yesterday. The La Salle theater was filled.

Robert H. Howe, Socialist candidate for city treasurer, was the first speaker.

"I'm for taking control of the industries and getting for the workers the wealth they create," he said.

A cheer greeted Mr. Cunnea.

"If I were a politician I would be out working to beat the band for the Democrats or the Republicans," he said. "But I'm not. I am a worker for the workers, and that is one of the reasons why you should vote for me."

"I'd Take Over Car Lines."

"The voters are falling for the same old bunk from the Democratic and Republican leaders. Why, if you'd only get some brains in your head you would see the light. The two candidates opposing me are pulling the wool over your eyes, are using the same old bunk. Neither should be mayor."

"If I were elected mayor I'd take over the traction lines and give you good service. I'd take over the telephone companies and give you a rate of 1 cent for each telephone call. I'd squeeze the water out of the street car rates. I'd give you some decent gas rates. I'd give you some low light rates. I'd make this town a real town, decent and fit for honest workers."

"The solid ivory of the voters in this town prohibits any realization of that, I suppose."

Says Foes Shun Debate.

"Will you enter a debate with the other candidates?" a man from the audience shouted.

"I would—but I have wasted too much time asking them for debates. They never accept." With that he waved a farewell and the meeting ended.

Wool-Mohair Davenport with same cover on back and reversible cushions

This is one of the most remarkable values we have ever offered. The Davenport is handsomely tailored with rose taupe wool-mohair. The back and reversible cushions are covered with the same long wearing material. Daintily trimmed with mohair chenille. The frame is one-half inch heavier than usual, of solid birch with attractive hand carved legs. The filling is all new moss and cotton over 225 of the best oil tempered springs supported by 17 strips of 3/4 inch webbing. Specially priced for Friday and Saturday.

PIGGY WIGGLY SHORTS FAIL TO MAKE PAYMENT

Both the Chicago and New York stock exchanges figuratively tossed the class A stock of the Piggy Wiggly Stores, Inc., into the public val yesterday and made simultaneous announcements that the stock has been permanently ruled off the lists.

Meanwhile, short interests both in New York and Chicago, laughed up their sleeves at the Piggy Wiggly "corner" and in most cases paid no attention to the demand of Clarence Saunders, president of the company, that they settle at $150 or be forced to pay $250 today.

Brokers Feel Safe.

Wiseacres both in La Salle and Wall street claimed yesterday that Mr.

Saunders has cornered nobody but himself, and that he will find himself with 398,000 shares of stock on his hands when he wants to unload. In some quarters it was estimated that Mr. Saunders will collect no more than $1,200,000 by his coup.

These same persons pointed out that banks are holding nearly all the stock as collateral for loans and when the loans are called Mr. Saunders will have to throw the stock on the market and find about $10,000,000 to make good his obligations.

Although no official reason was given by the Chicago stock exchange as to why the stock was permanently thrown off the exchange, high officials indicated that the statement of Mr. Saunders that he owns practically all of the stock was sufficient to prove that a free market for the stock no longer existed.

Offers Are Varied.

Reports in New York, Chicago, and other sections of the country had it that the bid price over the counter yesterday averaged from $90 to $100 and the price asked ranged from $110 to $145. One brokerage firm stated that it had stock to offer at $130 a share. Estimates of Mr. Saunders' friends placed his profits as the result of taking Wall street by the tail at approximately $4,000,000. Dispatches from St. Louis, Mo., quote the local Piggy Wiggly manager there to the effect that the paper profits of St. Louis residents ran to about $370,000.

Doubts if They'll Weigh.

Memphis, Tenn., March 22.—Clarence Saunders, president of the Piggy Wiggly Stores, Inc., expects "short sellers" of the Piggy Wiggly stock who were caught in the jam Tuesday, when a bear raid on the stock was repelled, to settle "on the proper basis," without court action, he declared tonight.

He could not believe, he said, that the New York stock exchange "was a wetcher or would allow its members to weigh on contracts."

Action of the exchange in giving members a five day extension in meeting calls for stock on Tuesday, he asserted, was "the same as a bank that would be unable to meet its clearings." Mr. Saunders declined to make an estimate of probable profits resulting from Tuesday's deal. Resources of the pool backing the Piggy Wiggly stock, he declared, were "around a hundred million dollars."

CROWE EXPLAINS BRUNDAGE ENTRY IN SCHOOL QUIZ

Attorney General's Share
Made an Issue.

Efforts to prove the illegality of indictments returned against Fred Lunda, Virtus Rohm, and twenty-two others in the $1,000,000 school board boodle case were centered yesterday upon the alleged unauthorized entry of Attorney General Edward Brundage into the investigation which resulted in the indictments.

Other objections to the indictments, based upon the purported failure of the state to prove a criminal conspiracy or the commission of a criminal act in the conduct of the board's affairs, were waived temporarily by Attorney General Brundage into the investigation which resulted in the indictments.

State Attorney Robert E. Crowe in the hearing yesterday traced the investigation of the school board scandal under his direction until the time when, at his request, Chief Justice Michael McKinley of the Criminal court urged Mr. Brundage to assume command of the inquiry.

"My purpose in asking to be relieved of the responsibility of the grand jury investigation was to stop the vicious propaganda which was being circulated through the Criminal court building to destroy me and the public's confidence in the inquiry," declared Mr. Crowe in answer to the questions of Attorney Darrow. I asked Chief Justice McKinley to appoint some one else to take over the matter, so that my integrity would be established in the minds of all.

Ready to Prosecute.
"When you suggested a change in the direction of the inquiry, did you think or mean that the responsibility should be taken off you or your office?" asked Mr. Darrow.

"I did not," replied Mr. Crowe. "But I was not concerned, because I was perfectly satisfied with any one whom the chief justice appointed."

"Were you and are you still ready to prosecute the indictments returned by the grand jury which investigated the school board affairs?" Mr. Crowe was asked.

"I am ready, as I always have been, to handle any and all actions which may properly come within my scope," declared the state's attorney. "I am willing, ready, and capable of prosecuting the present case."

Objections raised by Assistant At-ney General Marvin Barnhart and Edwin Haber to an effort by Attorney Brundage to force the state's attorney to disclose "by whose legal authority Mr. Brundage is conducting this case" were sustained by Judge McDonald.

Assistant State Attorney George E. Gorman testified that he had attended every session of the grand jury until the so-called blanket indictment was returned on Jan. 19, and was followed by John H. Fummers, clerk of the Criminal court, who declared no court order supplanting Mr. Crowe as head of the inquiry had been entered on his records.

Chief Justice Michael McKinley will appear in the resumed hearing this morning to reveal the circumstances which led to his invitation to Mr. Brundage to enter the investigation.

MUSICIAN PLAYS SWAN SONG, THEN HANGS HIMSELF

Monroe, Wis., March 22.—[Special.]—With an incurable disease which was undermining his strength and anguishing his mind, Grant Weber, talented musician, took his life in his studio today by hanging himself.

He had played the piano all morning and shortly before the fatal act was heard playing his "Swan Song."

Mr. Weber was 35 years of age. He received his early training in Germany and later was an assistant of Fannie Bloomfield Zeisler in concert work and piano instruction in Chicago. For a time he conducted a studio in Denver. He was unmarried.

ONE-THIRD OF U. S. BANK ROBBERIES ARE IN ILLINOIS

Peoria, Ill., March 22.—One-third of the total bank robberies in the United States were committed in Illinois, causing bank insurance to be increased to four times that of Pennsylvania, where state police are maintained.

Harvey Hill, chairman at a meeting of executives of commercial associations, said today.

P. G. Rannick and Eugene Brown, the latter president of the Illinois Protective association, urged support for the deep waterway project for the Illinois river.

Always Smartly Appropriate

What is so rare as a frock that is always smartly appropriate? Whatever the occasion—shopping tour, afternoon party or dinner and the theatre—one may wear either of these modes with complete assurance. Both are formal enough for dress, yet simple enough for daytime wear.

One of the season's smartest frocks is that shown at the left. It is distinguished by the new sheen material, slim, straight lines, and striking pearl button trim.

One glance at the gown on the right discloses its appropriateness for all-round wear. This coat dress of canton crepe, with its new pleated front panel, will prove an invaluable addition to the summer wardrobe.

We Show the New Hats Today

THE inauguration today of the Spring season in our Hat Department, still further emphasizes the pre-eminence of Capper & Capper as America's foremost purveyors of fine headwear.

Quality and exclusiveness are a deciding factor with Capper & Capper customers, of course, yet it might not be amiss to say that prices start with our famous "Boulevard" derby and soft hats at $5, ranging upward by easy stages to the finest that can be made, including the most notable productions of England, Italy and France.

In France, by the way, there lives a little Frenchman who also dreams of "finer things." Hemakes our celebrated French Beaver hat, which we sell at $15. No other merchant in Chicago sells this quality hat—it is confined to us.

Eight years ago we placed an order with this little Frenchman for three dozen of these fine hats. Today the major portion of this country's allotment is consigned to Capper & Capper.

These beautiful French Beavers are available in twelve colors. We guarantee them for five years, although we have yet to see one that shows any wear. A rare combination of quality and economy, indeed.

You are cordially invited to attend the opening today. You will find it interesting and educational—and you'll be glad that you came.

GOOD SHOES for GOOD HEADS

"He that hath a good head on his shoulders hath ever good wear upon his feet."—Old Egyptian Proverb.

TWENTY years ago, "way back when" O-G started in business, we were about ten years and seven months ahead of the times in the shoe values we gave per dollar asked.

That was why we grew in 20 years from the smallest men's shoe business in the world to the largest men's shoe business in Chicago.

Now, O-G is only about 2 or 3 years ahead of the times in the shoe values we give for the customer's dollar.

This indicates the powerful influence of O-G policy and practice on the general retail shoe business in Chicago which O-G has exerted—and which today is as potent as ever it was. It also suggests the dividends which all men have had, directly or indirectly, from the mere fact that O-G was in existence—a living power for good in the shoe world.

The forward push, the advanced theory of SERVICE, and the great leverage of Sane Economy which have anchored O-G MEN'S shoes, O-G MEN'S merchandising methods and O-G MEN'S store manners so deeply in the sub-conscious confidence of so great a preponderance of Chicago's best men (and Chicago's best men visitors)—these are the deep elements of the broad and true GOODWILL which alone accounts for the steady, healthy and unceasing growth of O-G from a mere retail business to a great National Institution.

The time will never come when O-G will be less than ONE full year "ahead of the times" in shoe-value giving and in the manner of its delivery to the appreciative public.

O-G men's Shoe prices, $6, $7, $8.50 and to $12.50, for leather quality often sold elsewhere up to $15.00, have brought down men's shoe prices all over the U. S.—especially in our home town. The proof is everywhere. It is in the pockets of many MEN who never yet have had O-G Shoes on their own favorite feet. But they soon will have.

Every 1/4-inch of every part of every O-G man's shoe is solid leather, of a grade the superiority of which you come to fully realize only by actual wear over a long period.

The scrupulous WORKMANSHIP in every detail, the nifty elegance of line and the CREATIVE STYLE character of O-G MEN'S shoes are supreme in the American trade—which means the world.

The O-G margin of profit per pair is so small that it almost means that you get your fine shoes practically at the cost of making and selling. It is only by reason of our several millions of dollars' worth of business per year, with rapid turnover of stocks, that such values are possible.

THESE ARE SHOE-BUYING DAYS FOR MEN. There's an O-G Men's store within hail, wherever you live. (See list below.)

Morning buying is recommended. The O-G Men's Stores are less crowded then. But that is up to you. Your plus money's-worth and lasting satisfaction are up to us. And John O'Connor and Julius Goldberg are "on the job" every minute, every day. The same as when they were the only names on the payroll—when there was any! That was in 1903. We won because every O-G patron was, in effect, a partner, to the extent of his purchases in our profit distribution by means of diminishing prices, on a sound business basis. This policy has paid—paid everybody concerned. It makes seller and buyer ONE, for the good of both. We shall always adhere to it.

"ANSWER TO COMMON ERRORS"

A man is marked by his slave and his shoes. Charlie Chaplin's sloppy feet never would win off the stage. A man's shoes should not only be battered and in the correct mode, but also should be of a thoroughbred quality that they retain their classy appearance and never look like "old" shoes. In the best circles it is considered the height of good judgment to confine one's footwear to the types of shoes known as o-ges, to be bought in any of six men's stores, wherein good manners, helpfulness and intelligence vie with the astonishingly moderate prices and the built-in merit of the shoes themselves for a man's immediate favor and permanent confidence.

ADJUSTERS AID IN SPEED WAR; AUTO DEATHS NOW 135

Casualty Men Pledge Fund for Prosecutions.

Three persons were killed and seven injured yesterday in a series of automobile accidents that brought Cook county's 1923 record of motor fatalities to 135.

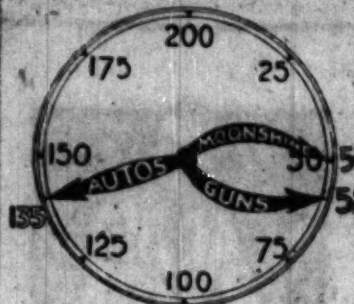

Records indicating that only a few of the reckless drivers figuring in the recent accidents have been indicted were produced by Coroner Oscar Wolff at a meeting of the Casualty Adjusters' Association of Chicago last night, causing that body to pledge its financial aid to the campaign to reduce the death rate and prosecute the guilty.

Killed in Wedding Gift Car.
Joseph J. Hart, a Chicago advertising man, was killed and his bride seriously injured when the automobile in which they were riding turned turtle two miles east of Huron, O. The couple were returning to Chicago from Cleveland, O., in the car, which Hart had just presented to his bride as a wedding present.

Sliding into a ditch on the Dixie highway near Homewood, a car driven by Eddie O'Toole of Chicago Heights turned upside down and pinned Peter Winters, 119 East 43d street, beneath it. He was drowned in the water which partially filled the ditch before he could be pulled from under the machine. Four others escaped serious injury.

Driver Held After Death.
Henry Nicks, 65 years old, of 708 North Wells street, was unidentified for several hours after being killed by an automobile driven by Gordon Doherty, 7943 Merrill avenue, who was held.

HANDS OF DEATH

Above is registered the number of deaths in Chicago since Jan. 1, 1923, attributed to automobile, moonshine, and guns. The figures are official, being a part of the coroner's records.

THREAT TO KILL WIFE IN STORE BRINGS ARREST

Unable to effect a reconciliation with his wife, Mrs. Hazel K. Moore, from whom he was divorced some time ago, Benjamin F. Moore, 36 years old, 4142 Berkeley avenue, drew a pocket knife, with the avowed intention of killing her, while she was working behind a counter in Carson, Pirie, Scott & Co.'s store yesterday. The screams of the wife and other saleswomen attracted a house detective, who arrested Moore and turned him over to the detective bureau. He admitted that he had been drinking, the police say.

Four Robbed Near Homes by Men with Revolvers

Benjamin Cohen, 707 Cornelia avenue, and his wife were robbed of $5 and a diamond ring by two armed men in the hallway of their home.

THREE CHICAGO GIRLS START TO "BO" TO FILMDOM

Kansas City, Mo., March 22.—(Special.)—A trip to California to enter the movies by three 18 year old Chicago girls ended in jail here last night.

The girls—Myrtle (Bob) Kruger, 18, 118 West Garfield boulevard, Chicago; Sue Rula, 18, and Mary (Gladys) Balough, 18—left Chicago March 11 "via the rods."

They were followed by two distracted sweethearts in a small touring car. The two young men, Bill Dinsberry, 19, and Herbert L. Davis, 20, never were able to catch up with the girls, however. It was not until the arrival of the girls in Kansas City that they learned they were being followed. Here they received a postcard given by a police matron.

Once during the trip a man bobo tried to get into the car. "We kicked him in the face," Mary Balough said. The girls' parents are sending them money to return.

That Glistening Hair Comes From Using Olive Oil Shampoo

Today you see beautiful hair everywhere. Hair that gleams. Women who have it have learned an important secret. They use the famous olive oil shampoo. Hair experts say that hair should never be washed without olive oil in the shampoo. For they say that dry, brittle hair results. And dull hair is never beautiful. Now you can have the olive oil shampoo in its most delightful form. Cheaply, at home. Just get a bottle of PALM-OLIVE SHAMPOO. At any drug store or department store. It quickly brings back the lovely sheen to your hair. Leaves it beautifully soft and glossy. You will marvel at the improvement!

RUSSEL ASKS FOR MORE EFFICIENT STATE BANK ACT

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

State Auditor Andrew Russell has opened a campaign to remove some of the shortcomings of the state banking act. In an address at the dinner of the Chicago and Cook County Bankers association at the Sherman hotel last night he urged larger appropriations from the legislature so that the corps of state bank examiners might be at least doubled. He spoke strongly for a separate state banking department and for the removal of the "must" provision which obliges the auditor to grant a permit to organize a bank to any three persons who ask it. A committee of seven from the Illinois Bankers association is to prepare changes in the banking act and an effort will be made to get some remedial amendments through the present session at Springfield so that they may be submitted to popular referendum, as required by the constitution, in 1924.

A. J. RUSSELL.

After Mr. Russell had dissected the banking situation, F. W. Sargent, general solicitor of the Chicago and Northwestern railway company held a clinic on the railroad doctrine of Senator Brookhart of Iowa. Murray MacLeod presided at the banquet.

Cities Tribune Stand.

"I shall take as my text," said Mr. Russell, "three paragraphs from the Chicago Tribune's article on banks this morning. They ring the bell. I have been advocating a separate state banking department. I believe the bankers are entitled to it. Illinois has 1,413 state banks, which, next to Missouri, is the most of any state. The public is entitled to a separate banking department.

"We are going to ask the legislature for at least double the present number of bank examiners for Chicago and Cook county. This is nothing but justice to the banks and protection to the depositors. We need more bank examiners and higher pay for some of them. It is a hard thing to talk to legislators of higher salaries when we are being taxed to death. But the fact is that higher salaries are needed to keep trained men."

State Stands High.

"Despite the hampering of small appropriations, the record of banking in Illinois equals that of any other state. Gov. Harding when at the head of the federal reserve told me there were only three states where the federal reserve took the results of the state examiners when a bank applied for membership and one of these three was Illinois. In other states they required examination by a federal reserve examiner."

"The present law was a compromise and on the whole it has worked well, but it has a number of weak points that need rectifying. A movement is now on foot for changes to strengthen the law. In section 2 the auditor is compelled to issue a permit where it is asked by three persons. That's weak. The auditor has no option. It has proved unfortunate in at least a few instances. In a few cases it has given scoundrels a chance to sell stock to unfortunate friends."

Address by Sargent.

Mr. Sargent in discussing the Brookhart views took up among other subjects that of high freight rates. He said the property investment of the government in the Panama canal is substantially the same as the property investment account of the Chicago and Northwestern Railway company. "Every dollar invested in the canal carried in 1921 1.5 tons of freight one mile," he said. "Every dollar measured by the Chicago and Northwestern railway property investment carried fifteen tons of freight one mile. So that a dollar in the railroad performed twelve times as much service by way of transportation in 1921 as a dollar in the canal."

"Now let us see what the comparative cost was. The average rate per ton per mile for transportation on the railroad was 1.41 cents. The average cost to the taxpayers of the United States per ton mile for transporting freight through the canal was 4.1 cents. To say nothing about the ship or bottom charges. Transportation by rail is the cheapest service the American people have."

"SHEIK" IS HELD; SAYS 14 "SHEBAS" HALTED WEDDING

James de Salha had so many "shebas" that he couldn't, with safety to his feelings and his pocket, announce his betrothal to any one of them, he complained yesterday. But the "sheik's" story failed to move Judge

William L. Morgan of the Court of Domestic Relations. The 29 year old Italian conqueror of hearts and recipient of the pay checks which went with them was held to the grand jury in bonds of $3,000 for contributing to the delinquency of 14 year old Stella Stasler. De Salha explained he wished to marry Miss Virginia Lesmer, 11 years old, of 2132 North Winchester avenue, but his fourteen other "shebas" would not hear of it.

SIXTH ST. BANK DEPOSITORS TOLD REFINANCE PLAN

Depositors of the Sixteenth Street State Bank were told last night of a plan to reorganize the bank and to issue new bonds to refinance the old ones. The plan was presented to a committee of depositors which would permit the reorganization of the bank. No objection was expressed by the depositors determined to take the plan over.

The meeting was orderly, the atmosphere obviously of the poorer class. It was evident they did not understand the plan, but they expressed interest in the committee, who reported the result of the day's conference. Only the holders of bonds, however, were present.

chase at any time, went away without success.

The proposed new bank would not be responsible for the bonds, they were told by Attorney Mitchell A. Zeleny, after Charles Levin, a heavy bondholder as well as depositor, said he would resign from the committee if the bonds were not made good.

Held Two Meetings.

The committee of ten met in one room at the office of State Auditor Andrew Russell, while Herman Elenbogen, latest of the bank's presidents, Louis J. Rubin, and Edward Bergson were closeted in another room with State Bank Examiner H. B. Savage. Mr. Savage barred newspaper men when he presented the Elenbogen proposal to the depositors' representatives.

Five of the committee were sent on their way after hearing Savage. The other half remained with the bankers' committee. The departing ones were freely voicing their objections to the plan as they left. None of the others would discuss the "agreement."

They had decided against publicity, they said, and, though all were furnished with typewritten copies, none was read at last night's meeting. A copy was obtained and is herewith reproduced:

Proposed plan for reorganizing the Sixteenth Street State Bank.

"1. It is proposed to organize a new corporation with a capital stock of $100,000 and a surplus of $10,000.

"2. The depositors will agree to purchase a minimum of 500 shares of the capital stock at $10 per share and purchase the balance of the stock—namely, 500 shares at $10 per share.

"3. The new corporation will take over the assets and assume the deposit liability of the old bank after the committee hereinafter named have appraised such assets and determined the liabilities.

Act Without Pay.

"4. The depositors shall appoint a committee—preferably of three members—to act with a like committee composed of Messrs. Elenbogen, et al. to appraise the assets and ascertain the extent of the liabilities to be taken over by the new bank.

"5. The committee thus appointed shall agree to act without remuneration and it is agreed that there shall be no attorney's fees or costs to be borne by the depositors.

"6. The depositors shall agree to accept time certificates of deposit payable in installments for a portion of commercial accounts and shall also agree to the application of the thirty or sixty day clause regarding the payment of savings accounts.

"7. Messrs. Elenbogen, et al. shall have an option for the purchase of the stock held by the depositors at $10 per share.

"8. That a very fine plan—for Messrs. Elenbogen et al., said Louis L. Meitus, president of the West Side Grocery and Fruit store, representing 180 depositors. "But it's not so good for the depositors, and it leaves the bondholders to bear the heavy loss."

"Under this plan the new bankers assume none of the bond liability and they organize the new bank with $50,000 of our money. Then when the bank is again wound and the stock valuable Elenbogen et al. exercise their option and take our stock away."

"They told us that the big difficulty was in the bond issues," Harry E.

Wasser contributed. "Malin, the first president, had issued lots of bonds that do not show on the books, they told us. We will present the plan to our fellow owners, but I have no idea they will accept. I for one don't like the time certificate clause. Theoretically we can get our money, but will we actually?"

Assistant State's Attorney Thomas Feden and William F. McLaughlin went to the closed bank during the afternoon and made a list of the mortgages for reference purposes. McLaughlin said he estimated the aggregate of the mortgages at $300,000.

Every Man Wants to Be Shown

THE new London Shoe Shop opened up last month with the following startling statements:

Only One London Shoe Shop in Chicago, 217 South State Street.

1—Men used to paying $12 to $14 or more per pair for their shoes, may now have the selfsame quality at $6.50 to $8.

2—Men used to paying $6.50 to $8 per pair for their shoes may now have high-grade shoes of character, without paying a cent more.

Every man wants to be shown. And thousands of men came to the new London Shoe Shop to be shown.

They saw the shoes. They judged the many models—the styles, the designs, the character of the shoes. They critically examined the leathers and the workmanship. They were all without exception amazed and—many were incredulous.

High Grade Shoes at Ordinary Prices

The majority who came bought shoes enthusiastically. Most of the rest went to other shops to make comparisons and then came back and bought with greater enthusiasm.

We simply could not build shoes any better than London Character Shoes, regardless of price.

Come in today. See the shop. See the shoes—try them on. Scrutinize the styles, the leathers, the workmanship.

U. S. OFFICIALS FIGHT TO AVERT GOUGE IN SUGAR

Hoover Leads Attack on Speculation in Cuba.

Cuba's Record Crop

Washington, D. C., March 22.—Department of commerce figures show the 1922 Cuban sugar crop set a record at 1,000,000 tons. Another 4,000,000 tons are in sight for 1923. Beet sugar prices have risen commensurate with crop.

BY GRAFTON WILCOX

Washington, D. C., March 22.—(Special.)—The federal government declared war today on sugar gougers, following the charges of Earl M. Stanley, director of the people's legislative service, in a letter to President Harding yesterday, that a criminal conspiracy had been organized to rob the American people of hundreds of millions of dollars through manipulation of the sugar market.

Every available agency of the government was arrayed in the campaign to halt the rapidly soaring sugar prices, which some refiners predicted would reach 30 cents a pound by June. On orders of Acting Attorney General Seymour, agents of the department of justice sought information and data which may be necessary in the department's response to the demand for a special grand jury to investigate the alleged conspiracy.

Cuban Market Investigated.

Secretary of Commerce Hoover announced that the commerce department already had instituted an inquiry into the sugar situation in Cuba and added that he had suggested that the federal trade commission undertake an investigation into the circumstances which have led to the sensational advance in sugar. The commission may meet tomorrow to make its plans.

The United States tariff commission also is prepared to make an in-

PREDICTS ERUPTION

BY SELBY MAXWELL

Prof. Omori, a Japanese seismologist, predicts that the volcano Mount Unzen, near Nagasaki, will soon be in violent eruption and that there will be a severe earthquake to accompany the disturbance. He bases his prediction on the behavior of the mountains following an earthquake last winter. Many people are preparing to flee the district.

The volcanoes of Japan are of the cinder cone type. They blow out from a comparatively narrow vent, but often with great force. Most of them are marked by high cinder cones built from ejected fragments.

Just before there comes a renewal of eruption certain signs can be noted in the throat. The plug is agitated by the formation of steam below. As the pressure increases the plug slips and earthquakes are the result. The temperature in the throat rises. Then it is time to leave the locality, for soon the steam will burst its way out.

quiry of its own to ascertain whether the sugar duty fixed by congress last year is justified.

Mr. Hoover said in respect to Mr. Manly's statement:

"As I have repeatedly stated, there is no economic justification for the high price of sugar, as there is an estimated world surplus.

Started Inquiry March 4.

Mr. Manly is about a month behind the times in his proposed investigation into the rise in price. Under authority of congress to investigate combinations of foreign producers of import commodities, this department, as soon as appropriations were available March 4, instituted an investigation into the situation in Cuba. As the department has no jurisdiction in domestic questions I informally suggested to the chairman of the federal trade commission that it should undertake this end of the matter.

"I regret to see Mr. Manly circulating the legend that the department stated there was a shortage of sugar, as this only tends to benefit the speculators, and the department made no such statement. Unfortunately, one news agency misinterpreted one of the usual semi-annual statistical statements of the department, but the moment it was brought to my attention it was immediately corrected in the press. Mr. Manly is rather captious in blaming a cabinet officer for the ease of type newspapers use in statistical tables.

Use Less Sugar, Is Advice

Representative Dullinger (Rep., Mass.) urged the public to cut down consumption as the most effective means of defeating the speculators. He wrote a letter to Secretary Hoover, he said, "to find out the reason for the soaring sugar prices."

"During the last few weeks," Mr. Dullinger said, "sugar has been going up at a rate which reminds me of conditions just after the war."

PEKING CABINET MAY BE OUSTED BY PARLIAMENT

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.)

PEKING, March 22.—President Li Yuan Hung has announced the appointment of Gen. Shen Hung Tia and Sun Chuan Fang as military governors of Kwantung and Pukien provinces. He has also announced the appointment of the brothers of Chen Chung Ming as commanders of the first division, with headquarters at Canton, and numerous other appointments to the southwest provinces. The action is a virtual declaration of war upon Sun Yat Sen and is a complete political victory for Wu Pei Fu, who will now proceed actively with reunification by force. Since Wu Pei Fu's insistence on these appointments caused the resignation of the cabinet, its reversal in position comes as a complete political surprise. The sequence probably will be an immediate effort by parliament to force the cabinet out and also to endeavor to remove President Li Yuan Hung, against whom impeachment charges already have been lodged. It is believed that the president has sufficient strength to retain office, but he may be forced to sacrifice several of his cabinet officers.

SHANAHAN PICKS COMMITTEE FOR HERRIN INQUIRY

So Selected as to Avoid Factions, He Says.

BY FRANK BUTZOW.
Springfield, Ill., March 22.—(Special.)—Speaker Shanahan today appointed the special house committee charged with the responsibility of fixing the blame for the absence of the state troops in Williamson county when the Herrin massacre occurred last June. The committee was named in pursuance of a resolution adopted by the house last week. The speaker announced the committee to make a full investigation and return a report unbiassed by fear or favor.

The committee consists of five Republicans and two Democrats. They are Representative Frank A. McCarthy (Kane), chairman; Representative Norman G. Flagg (Madison), William L. Pierce (Boone), W. B. Phillips (Jefferson), and Thomas Curran (Chicago). Republicans: M. L. Igoe (Chicago), and M. P. Rice (Fallon), Democrats.

Resents Partisan Charge.
Minority Leader Devine severely criticized the speaker for "unjust treatment of the Democrats" because there were given only two members. "I made these selections arbitrarily, after much thought, and I stand responsible for the committee," Mr. Shanahan declared.

Immediate adjournment of the house followed and the speaker called the committee.

"I will not have it said that politics is swaying this investigation or playing any part in the selection of this committee," he said. "I have tried to prevent factionalism from entering. I will not have it said that there is any 'Brundage persecution' in this, and I have named no member who is identified with the so-called 'Brundage' wing of the Republican party."

Demand Impartial Report.
"I feel that this committee will make a fair and impartial report. I want you to feel satisfied with your own conduct. What you do will live in the records of the state and I want you to do nothing of which you shall ever feel ashamed. I have nothing personal in this investigation. I do not care whom it hits or harms."

Among the five Republicans on the committee Representative Curran, a Lincoln-Thompson "small" adherent, is the only member who is not classed as a free lance. Representatives McCarthy, Pierce, Igoe, and Rice are lawyers. Representative Flagg is a farmer and Mr. McCarthy also has farming interests and is friendly to organized labor. Representative Phillips is a banker and a business man. Mr. Curran's constituency is largely of the laboring class.

Optional home rule of public utilities by municipalities, with the Illinois commerce commission, acting in an advisory capacity and as a court of last resort, is contained in a bill introduced in the legislature today by Senator Denvir (Dem., Chicago), minority leader of the senate. The commerce commission is retained in its present capacity also as a rate fixing and franchise regulating body for cities which fail to adopt or abandon home rule.

The amendments to the state highway laws were introduced by Senator Morris (Rep., Iroquois), administrative spokesman in the senate. The amendments follow:

1. Provides means for designating state highways which may be improved at the joint expense of the state and individual counties.
2. Places limitation of $500,000 on the amount of contracts which may be made by township or district road commissioners without approval of the county superintendent of highways.
3. Requires written consent of the state department of public works for adoption of signs or markers designating roads and trails.
4. Provides that fees collected by the division of highways shall be placed to the credit of the road fund.
5. Requires counties to maintain upkeep of gravel, macadam, and dirt roads after July 1, 1923.
6. Amends traffic regulations and gives mail, police, and fire vehicles the right of way over all other vehicles at all times on state highways.

The house today passed the Thon bill permitting persons drawn as jurors in Cook county to select the terms of court at which it is most convenient for them to serve. The measure now goes to the senate.

SENATORS FLARE OVER AMENDING MARKETING BILL

BY FRANK RIDGWAY.

Springfield, Ill., March 22.—(Special.)

A flurry in the senate developed among a half dozen senators this morning when an attempt was made by supporters of the Lant cooperative marketing bill to advance it to third reading. The scrimmage was started when the bill was called up on second reading and several amendments were offered.

Serious objections were raised by Senators Swift (Rep., Lake), Dunlap (Rep., Champaign), and Denvir (Dem., Chicago), to a provision in the bill which ties up a farmer for five years when he signs a contract with a cooperative marketing association, without making it possible for a dissatisfied member to withdraw.

Battle Clouds Gather.

Senator Swift's introduction of an amendment allowing farmers to withdraw from a cooperative association any time they become dissatisfied and granting authority to the organization's president and secretary to allow such withdrawals brought opposition from Senators Lant (Rep., Woodford), Kessinger (Rep., Kane), and Cuthbertson (Rep., Macoupin). Senator Lant moved to table the Swift amendment.

By a unanimous vote the discussion of amendments was suspended until next Tuesday morning. It was agreed that all amendments would be disposed of on Tuesday and the bill would be advanced to the third reading.

Senator Cuthbertson contended that the five year contract without the privilege of withdrawing was necessary so that the cooperative selling agency would be sure it had a control of the product, making possible the borrowing of money on warehouse receipts. Senator Dunlap wants to see the bill amended so that a dissatisfied farmer may withdraw from a cooperative association by giving one year's notice.

POOLE AGAINST MEASURE.

Russell J. Poole, secretary of the city council living costs committee, yesterday issued a statement calling on the state legislature to "kill the Lant cooperative marketing bill, both for the sake of the farmer and the consumer."

The compulsory feature of contracts between farmers and a marketing association, sanctioned by the proposed law, was especially criticized by Mr. Poole, who said such contracts would give an opportunity for limiting the supply of farm produce and thus controlling the price to the middle man and consumer.

Realism by N. U. Cast Costs Tooth, Wrenched Arm

"Rough it up, boys! Let's have a little realism," Leroy Pring, dramatic coach, last night exhorted members of the cast of the Northwestern university junior class play, "Cheating Cheaters," which is to be presented tonight at the Evanston Woman's club.

The boys obeyed. Edward Settles, cast as the detective, lost a tooth in the scrimmage that followed, and Lawrence Horton, football player and wrestler, had an arm severely wrenched before the human tangle was unraveled.

CASCARETS 10¢

For Constipated Bowels, Headache, Colds, Sour Stomach, Gases, Biliousness

Clean your liver and bowels! Enjoy the nicest, gentlest bowel cleansing you ever experienced by taking one or two candy-like Cascarets tonight. They physic your bowels fully. All the constipated waste and sour bile will move out of the bowels without griping or stirring you up. There will be no bowel poison to cause colds, sick headache, dizziness, biliousness or sour stomach when you wake up in the morning. More men, women and children take Cascarets for the liver and bowels than all other laxative-cathartics combined. 10 cent boxes, also 25 and 50 cent sizes. Any drugstore.

an entirely new cheese
A flavor never before attained

An appetizing new taste.

Richer and creamier. A smooth tangy flavor, that is captivating. A color that tempts you.

A new cheese has been developed by the largest cheesemakers in America. They have named it Phenix Club Cheese.

For 40 years smooth mellow Phenix cheeses have been famed for their better flavor. Fertile valleys with particular properties in the soil produced a special milk, and two generations of the cheesemaker's art developed the skill to make a richer, smoother cheese.

Now this new cheese takes its place beside the older Phenix delicacies. It comes in four varieties: American, Swiss, Pimiento, Brick—each with a richness of flavor never before attained.

Exactly the same goodness every time

Phenix Club Cheese is always of exactly the same goodness. Always the same creaminess. Always the same unique flavor to whet the appetite.

It is put up in packages that slice into dainty squares for the table. Wrapped in tinfoil it keeps fresh and good to the last slice.

Try this new cheese delicacy today. On sale at groceries, delicatessens, dairies.

EUROPE MAKES U. S. PAY HIGH FOR PASSPORT EVILS

Yankees Squeezed; Fault Is Laid to Congress.

(By a Staff Correspondent.)
Washington, D. C., March 22.—(Special.)—Not only reduction in visa fees but a step toward modification of the visa system and even, in the case of business men, tourists and students, of the maintenance of visa requirements, which aside from expense cause delay and annoyance to Americans traveling abroad, were the objects of President Harding in asking Congress for authority to negotiate with foreign governments reciprocal arrangements for abating the passport visa nuisance.

In recommending modification of the visa and requirements the President and Secretary Hughes are advocating a step already taken in many countries, a number of which have abolished visas as between themselves, but the advantages of which are withheld from Americans because of the position taken in 1920 and adhered to ever since by the United States.

All World Retaliation.

Before visa charges were increased by Congress from $2 to $10 Americans could get their passports issued anywhere in Europe at an average rate of $1.50. Citizens and subjects of other countries with few exceptions can do so still, but not Americans.

When the American rate went up, it was promptly matched by Great Britain, Italy, Spain, Austria, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Roumania, Poland, Denmark, Sweden, and other nations. Germany moved her fee up to $15 for a visa good for one year and $10 for any period of less than one year, though other nationals can get a German visa good for three months for $5. In France and Greece the visa fee to Americans was raised to $5, and in Holland, China, Japan, Germany, Brazil, Peru, Portugal, and Colombia, comparatively few of whose nationals visit the United States, the rate ranges from $1.50 to $2.

Where the Rub Is Costly.

For a Danish visa an American in Berlin reported a year ago that he was charged $44 marks, a German $24, an Englishman $25, and a Frenchman $4. For an Austrian visa the charge to the American was $20 marks, while to an Englishman it was $10, and to a Frenchman $5. Norway's visa fee to an American was $25 marks, to a German $20, and to an Englishman $15.

In general the tendency in Europe is to return as speedily as possible to pre-war standards and to escape the expense and annoyance of the war-time passport and visa system. Many governments have reduced their fees to nationals of countries making reciprocal arrangements, and visas have been discontinued altogether between England and France, France and the Netherlands, Spain and the Netherlands, Norway and Denmark, Norway and Sweden, and Norway and the Netherlands, unless the alien is longer required of any one by Belgium or by Switzerland, unless the alien in question is seeking employment in Switzerland, in which case the visa fee is $4.10.

Suggest We Change System.

Switzerland, regardless of our exactions, no longer requires visas of Americans; Greece last year made a tourist visa rate of $1.50 and has been trying to get the United States to reciprocate; and England, France, Denmark, Sweden, and other countries have suggested to the United States the mutual modification of visa requirements.

Under the existing law no such modifications can be made. The United States has no short time visa. The American visa is good for one year with no restrictions as to the number of times it may be used within that period, and that is the visa a foreigner must have whether he wants to make one visit to the United States within the year or several, or to remain here but twelve days instead of twelve months.

Neither Europe nor the United States, the latter especially in view of its immigration problem, can afford to abolish the passport visa system, which, with all its drawbacks, does present a safeguard against political undesirable and criminals, but far more has been done in Europe than in the United States to free tourists, students, professional and business men, and other temporary travelers from its exactions.

What Hughes Requested.

This was pointed out by Secretary Hughes in his recommendation of Feb. 5, forwarded to Congress by the President with his approval on Feb. 5. "In this situation," he said, "referring to present confusions and inconveniences, it would appear to be in the public interest to remove the burden which existing requirements impose upon that class of aliens visiting the United States as tourists, or temporarily for business or pleasure, provided reciprocal treatment be granted to American citizens traveling abroad."

"A necessary condition to undertaking negotiations with other governments is for Congress to grant authority to the President to reduce the fees now prescribed by law and otherwise modify or suspend visa requirements to the extent of the concessions which foreign governments may agree to extend to American travelers."

"Especially adapted for oral sanitation and the prevention of gum diseases, soft and spongy gums and Pyorrhea in its early stages."

A Practical, Economical, Better Method of Refrigeration for Your Home

Frigidaire is an electrically operated refrigerator, creating its own cooling power. It affords a method of refrigeration for the home far more convenient, far more healthful, far better in every way. It provides what all scientists agree are the proper essentials for home refrigeration—first, a temperature always below 48°; second, a dry atmosphere; third, thorough cleanliness.

This constantly cool, dry air keeps food in perfect condition for a long time, thus saving a great deal of wastage. Moreover, food kept in a Frigidaire retains its original flavor and tastiness. Naturally it goes far towards safeguarding the health of the family.

Frigidaire is complete within itself and can be placed anywhere in the home at the convenience of the housewife instead of the ice man. It banishes once and for all the muss and nuisance of ice. It freezes at one time nine pounds of ice in small cubes for cold drinks. It provides the means of making new and delicious frozen desserts.

Operating Costs Much Less Than for Ice

Frigidaire gets its power from your home electric current and costs no more and in most cases much less than what you would pay for ice. There is a size and style of Frigidaire to meet the requirements of your home at a price you can afford. If desired the mechanism alone can be installed in your own ice box if you have a good one. Moreover, if you wish you can buy Frigidaire on unusually easy term payments.

You should have Frigidaire in your home this summer. Find out about it today. Just send a post card or telephone.

TELL OF THREATS TO KILL AS GARY RUM TRIAL ENDS

Sixty-three Are Awaiting Verdict of Jury.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 22.—(Special.)—The government rested its case in the Gary liquor conspiracy trial in which sixty-three persons, including Gary and Lake county officials, are defendants, this afternoon. Immediately afterwards, motions were made by defense attorneys to dismiss all defendants represented by counsel. The court took the motions under advisement.

Near the close of the government's case, Judge Tolson, chief of the federal bureau of investigation, testified that he had "planted" liquor in the home of Eli Viator, father-in-law of Philip Utkan, principal government witness.

Threats that they would "get" Utkan, who aided federal prohibition agents in investigating conditions in Lake county last year were made by defendants.

"This is the work of that Utkan. We've been trying to get him for some time and we will get him yet," was the remark made by William M. Dunn, judge of the Gary city court, when Dunn was arrested, George Winkler, group chief of prohibition agents, testified.

"Blasphemy, Gary attorney, and a defendant, was present," Winkler said. "The following day," Winkler said, "Utkan was arrested." Utkan testified that he was beaten at the Gary police station.

"We should have killed Utkan before we sent him to Crown Point to jail," Nathan Foster, police sergeant and a defendant, said, according to Steve Mendish.

2 Youths Held for Trying to Force Girl Into Marriage

Accused by Mrs. Emma Teuscher, 537 North Wells street, of attempting to force her 15 year old daughter, Susie, into a marriage at Crown Point, Ind., Frank Scudla, 317 North Wells street, son of a wealthy coal dealer, and Frank Rogers, 535 North Wells street, were arraigned yesterday on charges of disorderly conduct. The case was continued until today.

FOURMEN'S DEATH AN ACCIDENT.

A verdict of accidental death was returned yesterday in the case of Policeman Jerome J. Scallap, 14 East 60th street, of the Graham street station, accidentally shot when his revolver fell to the floor.

LEGION NOTES

Meetings of the Chicago chapter of the Military Order of the World War have been changed from Tuesdays to Wednesdays and take place now at the Hamilton club, 20 South Dearborn street, instead of at the Morrison hotel as heretofore.

The new Portage Park post, No. 123, recently organized in the Portage Park and Dunnington district, will hold its public installation of officers and members at the Portage Park school hall, Herbeau and Lockwood avenues, this evening at 8 o'clock.

Theodore Roosevelt post of the American Legion will meet at a luncheon today in the King Cole room of the Hamilton club to discuss a proposed resolution asking congress to enact legislation making Roosevelt's birthday, Oct. 27, a national holiday.

On next Monday at 8:15 p. m. at Eagle hall, 2547 West Madison street, Foreign post will initiate a class of new members, assisted by the Commonwealth Edison post. All legionnaires are invited to attend. All ex-service men of the west side are invited to join this class. Applications should be addressed to John Lewis, 2125 West Monroe street.

WEEK FOR SHOOTING.

Charged with shooting and wounding Thomas Gavin of 5513 South Halsted street, 8, St. Joseph's hospital, 551 Fairfield avenue, was held to the grand jury yesterday in bonds of $5,000 by Judge A. S. Adams.

UNION OFFICIAL IN HERRIN MOB, WITNESS STATES

Marion, Ill., March 22.—(Special.)—Robert Officer, bookkeeper for the Lester mine and a survivor of the Herrin massacre, today identified Hugh Willis, executive board member of the Illinois miners' union, as being the man who drove up to the line of march at the power house woods, just before the victims were led into the woods where the murders took place.

Ward Trowell, a former garage employe of Goreville, told of hearing Otis Clark on June 23 say, while exhibiting some shells, "we got them out of Mac's pocket," meaning the state contents, that they came from the pocket of Superintendent McDowell of the Lester mine, whom it is alleged Clark, with Otis Howard, led down a road to his death.

The defense requested the judge to call Mrs. George Nelson as a witness, in case the state refused or failed to do so. In the first trial, Mrs. Nelson said that she saw McDowell led down the road by two men, but did not know them. Her husband, testifying today, said that she was standing by his side when McDowell was led away by Otis Clark and Oscar Howard. He also said that his wife had met Clark and knew Howard. The state expects to rest its case tomorrow.

How to Avoid the Pitfalls of Prosperity

There is universal agreement that America is out of the slough of industrial depression and is again climbing the heights toward prosperity. Admitting this condition, it is of the utmost importance to every merchant, manufacturer and, in fact, to every man and woman to know if the United States, as a nation, is standing on firm, level, high ground or is making a perilous ascent from which business must almost inevitably fall headlong, perhaps with another "buyers' strike," and plunge downward again into the depths of depression, unemployment and epidemics of bankruptcy.

As one financial writer sees it, American business is at a "cross-roads" where it may choose between a safe path to continued prosperity or the more tempting climb to the dizzy heights of inflation and the inevitable downward crash.

That LITERARY DIGEST readers may know just where the country stands and that they may know how to choose the safer path, the leading article in that magazine this week presents expert opinion upon present and future business conditions. This news-feature, coming at this time, and because of its comprehensive scope, will be read carefully.

ARKANSAS PRO FAILS TO BLA CITIZEN GUAR

Committee Is Defen
by Attorney.

Harrison, Ark., March 22.—(Associated Press.)—The Citizens' committee of Twelve at Harrison supervised the Boone county election, he saw nothing that was done by the committee that required the intervention of the court. Karl Green, attorney, late today told the committee of the Arkansas legislature, probing the trouble at Harrison, January.

The lynching of E. C. Greer, a railroad employe, and the whipping of strikers or sympathizers reported had been probed from every angle by the Boone county grand jury, he testified before the committee by the committee of the Arkansas legislature, probing the trouble at Harrison, January.

Conflict in Testimony.
The committee, hearing the evidence along the Missouri and Arkansas railroad today had in records contradictory testimony of most every occurrence referred to by both citizens and strikers.

Prosecutor Greenhaw was the important witness examined by the committee today. He testified that statement attributed to Judge H. H. that unless the strikers pleaded guilty he could not guarantee them and was false.

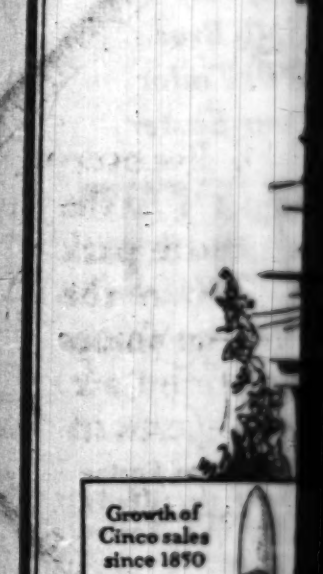

Prosecutor Greenhaw was here with the citizens gathered from along the railroad, he told the committee.

Says Adverser Fearsful.
"The advent was very peaceful," testified. "Some of the men were armed. The citizens had been told that this is the only railroad to serve for 125,000 to 150,000 people who suffer great financial loss caused by strike."

"The service was resumed on new management in May, 1922," the strikers refused to return to jobs with a standard of wages fixed by the United States railway labor board and the railroad employed other men. Then trouble began, and evidence brought before the grand jury showed that there was a concerted movement to put the road out of business. Everything conceivable in the out of commission was done."

ARKANSAS PROBE FAILS TO BLAME CITIZEN GUARDS

Committee Is Defended
by Attorney.

Harrison, Ark., March 22.—[By Associated Press.]—The Citizens' Committee of Twelve at Harrison did not blame the Boone county courts and the new sheriff that was done by the committee that required the intervention of the court. Karl Greenhaw, chairman of the committee, said that the committee had been in existence for three months and had been holding its third term at Harrison last week. He reported that he had been in London and had returned when it became known that persons who furnished $10,000 bonds for him were about to lose their money through an order of Federal Judge Wilkerson that the bonds be forfeited.

Immediately upon the appearance of the convicted man his attorney, Edward Maher, appeared before Judge Wilkerson and asked that the forfeiture order be rescinded. The judge continued the motion on the hearing.

Body of Ernest Renan Is Voted Place in Pantheon
[Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service.] PARIS, March 22.—The senate today voted to place the remains of Ernest Renan in the Pantheon with Edgar Quinet and Michelet.

Conflict in Testimony.
The committee, hearing the end of the citizens' side of the dispute along the Missouri and North Arkansas railroad today had in its records contradictory testimony on almost every occurrence referred to by both citizens and strikers.

Prosecutor Greenhaw was the most important witness examined by the committee today. He testified that the statement attributed to Judge Shinn that unless the strikers pleaded guilty he could not guarantee their safety, was false.

Prosecutor Greenhaw was here when the citizens gathered from along the railroad, he told the committee.

Says Advent Peaceful.
"The advent was peaceful," he testified. "Some of the men were armed. The citizens had been tolerant. This is the only railroad to serve from 25,000 to 150,000 people who suffered great financial loss caused by the strike."

"The service was resumed under new management in May, 1932, but the strikers refused to return to their jobs with a standard of wages fixed by the United States railway labor board, and the railroad employed other men."

Then trouble began, and evidence brought before the grand jury later showed that there was a concerted movement to put the road out of business. Everything conceivable to put the road out of business was done."

ADER OFF TODAY FOR SEVEN YEAR TERM IN PRISON

United States deputy marshals tonight will take Edward J. Ader to Leavenworth prison to begin serving his seven year sentence on charges of swindling Chicagoans out of $500,000 through promotion of the "defunct Consumers' Packing company."

Ader, formerly a prominent attorney, surrendered at the federal building yesterday after being a fugitive since the United States Circuit Court of Appeals issued a mandate for his commitment to Leavenworth six weeks ago.

He reported that he had been in London and had returned when it became known that persons who furnished $10,000 bonds for him were about to lose their money through an order of Federal Judge Wilkerson that the bonds be forfeited.

Immediately upon the appearance of the convicted man his attorney, Edward Maher, appeared before Judge Wilkerson and asked that the forfeiture order be rescinded. The judge continued the motion on the hearing.

POPE RECEIVES U. S. DELEGATES TO ROME MEET

ROME, March 22.—[Tribune Radio.]—The pope today received 150 members of the American delegation to the International Chamber of Commerce congress. He made a short speech, expressing satisfaction that the congress was held in Rome and he hoped that the work accomplished would hasten pacification of the world and its restoration to economic normalcy. The Americans were impressed with the pope's great interest in the well being of humanity and his knowledge of economic affairs.

A resolution on industry and trade presented by the American delegation was approved today to the satisfaction of the Americans. A resolution presented by the British, recommending a fixed date for disarmament, also was passed today. No information could be obtained whether the proposal was brought to the pope.

U. S. RED CROSS READY TO HELP GREEK REFUGEES

CONSTANTINOPLE, March 22.—[Tribune Radio.]—While not advising the Greek government one way or another, the American Red Cross has informed Athens that if the 30,000 Greek refugees at Constantinople and 17,000 along the Black sea are transported to Greece the American organization will be able to take care of them, according to Col. William Haskell, the director of the relief, who returned this morning from Athens.

Col. Haskell stated that despite the propaganda of other organizations the American Red Cross is taking care of practically all the refugees in Greece needing help.

The Floor for Your New Home

NO part of the house you are building or remodeling will be used as much as the floors. No part of your house will need to be cleaned so often as the floors. And the floors can be noisy or quiet, costly or economical, beautiful or drab—according to the material you select.

The qualities of linoleum are today well appreciated by architects and interior decorators. Linoleum is now considered a floor finish material and is being specified more and more in the plans for new houses.

Will you be sure to consider every one of the many merits of linoleum?

Linoleum is durable. When correctly installed it makes a permanent floor. It is easily cleaned. Dust and dirt do not work into linoleum, and a broom or vacuum sweeper speedily removes every piece of thread or grain of dust.

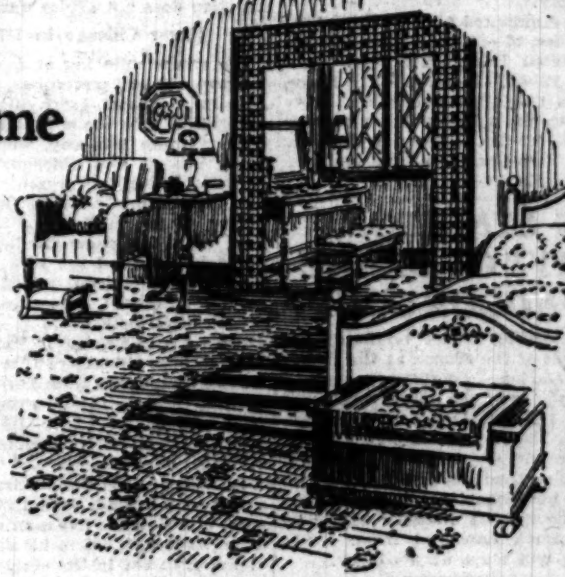

Linoleum requires very little care

With an occasional waxing and polishing, its colors deepen and mellow. It actually grows better looking if kept covered with a thin protecting film of floor wax.

Linoleum floors are quiet, resilient, warm, and comfortable.

Domestic or Oriental rugs may be laid on these floors as on any floor. Linoleum is nonslippery, does not splinter, shows no unsightly cracks, and is not expensive to install.

These are all practical, useful advantages. The beauty of the modern patterns of Armstrong's Linoleum and the aid they offer in decorating your home according to your own color scheme are special advantages that linoleum has over any other type of floor.

In this bedroom the floor is Armstrong's Printed Linoleum

Write for free sample and booklet

Have you seen any of the new Armstrong's Linoleum patterns? Good linoleum merchants can show them to you or you can see color-plates of them in our booklet, "New Floors for Old."

Jaspés, carpet inlays, tile inlays, marbled and printed patterns; also information on laying linoleum and how to care for your linoleum floors. We will also be glad to send you a sample of Armstrong's Jaspé Linoleum, a floor we especially recommend for new homes.

If you live in an apartment, or occupy a house on short lease, go to a house-furnishing store and see Armstrong's Linoleum Rugs, both printed and inlaid, in four sizes, from 6x9 feet to 9x12 feet.

Linoleum permanently completed in place requires no sanding or refinishing. Such a floor is smooth and right

Show Punch.

BY WALTER ECKERSALL.

Fifteen hundred fans filed their way into the Ashland Boulevard auditorium last night to see preliminary bouts in the 135 and 147 pound classes of the Chicago amateur boxing championship. The bouts were conducted by the Tribune A. A. A. These fights were the first of a series of bouts which were to be staged by the referees, while the other cases boxers were sent to the canvas after being struck on the chin. All, however, left the ring without assistance, and many found out they did not know as much about the many art of self-defense as they thought.

Clean Out Victories.

In the majority of cases bouts were won in clean cut fashion and left no doubt as to the superiority of the victors. In other instances contestants had no right in the ring and need more grooming before entering such a tournament, which has attracted the best amateurs in Chicago. The task of awarding decisions was easy for the judges, who were aided by the referee's verdicts met with popular approval.

Extra rounds had to be called to determine several winners, but the better boxer always received the decision. Another instance of sportsmanship which always asserts itself in amateur athletics was shown when Roy Van Haverdine of the Belle Plaine A. C. after being disqualified for unfair tactics apologized to the audience for his actions. The apology, however, did not reverse the decision of the A. A. A. of which he was the only one who was not in that he outclassed his opponent so easily.

Two disqualifications resulted on grounds of professionalism and three boxers were rejected by the examining physicians in charge of Dr. Ben Groulx. In all other cases the judges ruled in favor of the victors and the bouts were determined on their merits. The field of boxers in both classes was reduced to sixteen each, which assures the winning bout of the tournament on Wednesday with the semi-finals scheduled on Monday and Tuesday and final bouts in the 160, 175, and heavyweight divisions to be held at the Auditorium tonight. It took some hustling to reduce last night's fields, which attracted the largest entry of any of the classes.

Show Plenty of Punch.

Stiff punches asserted themselves in both classes. There were clean knockdowns which terminated the rounds at once. Some fairly clever boxers put in an appearance and it was the general opinion of the winners of the various classes will be entitled to all credit and honor possible as the journey is about the stiffer amateur test held in the middle of the year. Joseph P. Hill of the Central A. C. had the honors of winning the first bout in the 135 pound class. He won the decision over Sam Marino of the Des Moines A. C. after the first round on a knockdown. Hill showed the more aggressiveness and stiffer punch. He is expected to be a strong contender by his club members who were out in force to cheer him along.

Walter Bobb of the Cornell Square A. C. won a deserved decision over Arthur Peterson of the Norwegian American A. C. At the end of the bout, the judges disagreed but Referee Dave Barry ruled Bobb had done the work, offensively and the bout was a fast, but all the way with both boys trying at all times. In the welterweight division, Frank Hill of the Polish Falcon won an extra round to win over Joe Pills of the Adelaide A. C. The latter was overweight for the lightweight division and stepped up in the welterweight class and made a creditable showing. Both went at it with both hands from the first tap of the bell and at the end of the fourth round there was little to choose between them.

De Paul U. Lad Benzen. Gerald Hurley of the Panther A. C. won a three round decision over Walter Rouman of De Paul university. Hurley scored a clean knockdown in the first round and another in the second. James J. Sietek of the Army One club won over Walter McDonald of the Eighteenth Ward club. In the final bout of the evening Sam La Rue of the Memphis Orioles A. C. won over Max Barnett of the Associated House in an extra round. It was a slam bang affair, and at the end of three sessions there was little to choose between them. The extra round met with the approval of the spectators, who apparently thought it was one of the best contests of the evening, judging from the applause. Contestants in the 160, 175, and heavyweight divisions are requested to report at the Auditorium tonight at 6 o'clock as possible to be weighed in and examined. The first bout will go on at 7:30 o'clock and the field in each class reduced to at least sixteen men, who will be eligible for the semi-finals, which start Monday night.

Run Bouts Off in Hurry.

Owing to the rapidity with which the evening is being run off, it will not be necessary to run the tournament over extra days, as was expected. The quickness with which the bouts are run has led to a wholesale elimination of the first shift, with the first shift, when the better boxers will be brought together.

IN the WAKE of the NEWS

AMATEUR BOXING.

LEAN boxing, marked by earnest effort and good sportsmanship, has prevailed the first two nights of the Tribune Athletic association amateur tournament. In our opinion, the venture is a distinct success—a marked stimulus to the development of a healthy young manhood which knows how to defend itself for pleasure or emergency.

After work of our eye and hand belong to the alley that did not care (And now we know it never could know) And did not understand.

The bowler got sore at the belly-split.

And it isn't the split and it isn't the miss.

YALE'S BOXING CHAMP QUALIFIES IN LONDON MEET

LONDON, March 22.—At Hoxton tonight, Edward P. Egan, Yale-Oxford university, who won the light heavyweight boxing title in the Olympic games in 1920, defeated A. J. Clifton of the Port of London police on points in both the light heavyweight and heavyweight classes. This qualifies Egan for the amateur boxing championship tournament, which will be held at Alexandra palace April 18.

CURLEY AND 5 BOXERS BARRED BY ALLIANCE

GENARO TO BOX HERE

New York, March 22.—Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, was matched tonight to meet Red Taylor of Chicago at Chicago April 4 in a ten round no-decision bout. The title will not be involved as the contract calls for 116 pounds ring limit.

One Chicago manager and five boxers have come under the ban of the National Sports Alliance as a result of action taken yesterday.

Dick Curley is the manager to feel the steam behind the punch of the alliance, and the boxers under his management including Herbie Schaeffer, Frankie Schaeffer, Sailor Freedman, Mike Dundee, and Eddie Shea, are the mitt artists to be barred. The ruling, according to officials of the National Sports Alliance, prevents any boxer who has affiliation with that sport governing body from participating in a contest with boxers under Curley's management, either in Chicago or elsewhere.

Refuse to Pay Up.

The expulsion followed Curley's refusal to contribute 2 per cent of the purses paid his boxers for the maintenance of the alliance. The pronouncement of the body stated that Curley refused to pay the dues and that the alliance could not secure restoration of his good standing by the local chapter.

The action against Curley and the boxers he manages is the latest in a series of moves the Chicago Alliance chapter has taken to bring the local ring situation under control. The alliance was organized primarily to foster the amateur sport and work in the interests of boxing, not only in Chicago but throughout Illinois, and to keep the game clean everywhere.

Many Join Alliance.

Scores of prominent Chicagoans, and practically all of the local boxing fraternity, have affiliated with the Chicago chapter. One of its first acts was to seek favorable boxing legislation, and headway has been made in that direction. Officials believe, however, that progress cannot continue without a united front and the highest possible sportsmanship on the part of every one connected with the affairs of local boxing.

Curley and his boxers were the first to refuse to work in harmony with the new organization, and the suspensions were unanimously voted, according to officials of the alliance.

PINKEY WANTS TO DEFEND HIS BOXING CROWN

Billy Mitchell, manager of Pinkie Mitchell, "junior welterweight champion," was in Chicago yesterday and announced Pinkie is ready to defend his title against any 140 pounder in the game. Mitchell claims the title by virtue of a vote taken by the boxing blade. A commission composed of Judge Ebel, Judge Hildreth, and M. A. Amberg has charge of all rules governing the belt, emblematic of the championship. Manager Mitchell is particularly anxious to have Pinkie take his war in or near Chicago.

Pal Moore, local bantamweight, returned to Chicago from New York where he fought in a contest last week. Pal is anxious to meet any of the local 115 pounders.

Frank Kennedy, local featherweight, has joined the Kane-Long stable and will be matched with the best boys of his weight.

Joe Durman, north side bantamweight who defeated Joe Lynch, champion of the Queens, Meador was accused yesterday with his right arm in a sling. Joe asserted his elbow is still sore, but he will be able to box again in three weeks.

Eddie Anderson of Moline and Jack Bile of the west side, who met at Lyons on Monday, engaged in the usual workout at the Academy.

Joe Durman, north side bantamweight who defeated Joe Lynch, champion of the Queens, Meador was accused yesterday with his right arm in a sling. Joe asserted his elbow is still sore, but he will be able to box again in three weeks.

Eddie Anderson of Moline and Jack Bile of the west side, who met at Lyons on Monday, engaged in the usual workout at the Academy.

The Fatty Rocco-Jimmy Gory ten round bout at East Chicago tomorrow night is expected to be a hot one, with a lot of action in and out of the ring.

Joe O'Hara, Fort Dodge, Ia., 135 pounder, is training for a center match with Billy Wells, English welterweight champion, before a lot of attention in and out of the ring.

YALE'S BOXING CHAMP QUALIFIES IN LONDON MEET

LONDON, March 22.—At Hoxton tonight, Edward P. Egan, Yale-Oxford university, who won the light heavyweight boxing title in the Olympic games in 1920, defeated A. J. Clifton of the Port of London police on points in both the light heavyweight and heavyweight classes. This qualifies Egan for the amateur boxing championship tournament, which will be held at Alexandra palace April 18.

CURLEY AND 5 BOXERS BARRED BY ALLIANCE

GENARO TO BOX HERE

New York, March 22.—Frankie Genaro, American flyweight champion, was matched tonight to meet Red Taylor of Chicago at Chicago April 4 in a ten round no-decision bout. The title will not be involved as the contract calls for 116 pounds ring limit.

One Chicago manager and five boxers have come under the ban of the National Sports Alliance as a result of action taken yesterday.

Dick Curley is the manager to feel the steam behind the punch of the alliance, and the boxers under his management including Herbie Schaeffer, Frankie Schaeffer, Sailor Freedman, Mike Dundee, and Eddie Shea, are the mitt artists to be barred. The ruling, according to officials of the National Sports Alliance, prevents any boxer who has affiliation with that sport governing body from participating in a contest with boxers under Curley's management, either in Chicago or elsewhere.

Refuse to Pay Up.

The expulsion followed Curley's refusal to contribute 2 per cent of the purses paid his boxers for the maintenance of the alliance. The pronouncement of the body stated that Curley refused to pay the dues and that the alliance could not secure restoration of his good standing by the local chapter.

The action against Curley and the boxers he manages is the latest in a series of moves the Chicago Alliance chapter has taken to bring the local ring situation under control. The alliance was organized primarily to foster the amateur sport and work in the interests of boxing, not only in Chicago but throughout Illinois, and to keep the game clean everywhere.

Many Join Alliance.

Scores of prominent Chicagoans, and practically all of the local boxing fraternity, have affiliated with the Chicago chapter. One of its first acts was to seek favorable boxing legislation, and headway has been made in that direction. Officials believe, however, that progress cannot continue without a united front and the highest possible sportsmanship on the part of every one connected with the affairs of local boxing.

Curley and his boxers were the first to refuse to work in harmony with the new organization, and the suspensions were unanimously voted, according to officials of the alliance.

PINKEY WANTS TO DEFEND HIS BOXING CROWN

Billy Mitchell, manager of Pinkie Mitchell, "junior welterweight champion," was in Chicago yesterday and announced Pinkie is ready to defend his title against any 140 pounder in the game. Mitchell claims the title by virtue of a vote taken by the boxing blade. A commission composed of Judge Ebel, Judge Hildreth, and M. A. Amberg has charge of all rules governing the belt, emblematic of the championship. Manager Mitchell is particularly anxious to have Pinkie take his war in or near Chicago.

Pal Moore, local bantamweight, returned to Chicago from New York where he fought in a contest last week. Pal is anxious to meet any of the local 115 pounders.

Frank Kennedy, local featherweight, has joined the Kane-Long stable and will be matched with the best boys of his weight.

Joe Durman, north side bantamweight who defeated Joe Lynch, champion of the Queens, Meador was accused yesterday with his right arm in a sling. Joe asserted his elbow is still sore, but he will be able to box again in three weeks.

Eddie Anderson of Moline and Jack Bile of the west side, who met at Lyons on Monday, engaged in the usual workout at the Academy.

NEW YORK, March 22, 1934

NEW YORK, March 21.—So far as the stock market concerned today, it was made up of confused transactions of nominal speculators, which and the most part in net decline. The day's business consisted of attempts of these experts to move highly speculative industrial 2 or 3 points while trying to sell holdings of other shares. It was a market of wholly no significance, except in so far as

The grotesque phases of the very over the lately much of the chain store group are the same as small was of 1920. The main matter of interest in the present incident is the declaration of fiscal authorities back of Piggly Winkles that they "will never allow its shares to be traded in again on the New York stock exchange." This is a body blow, but the stock exchange will get on from it.

Both at New York and London, the advance in the franc halted today. In the last week's continuous advance, the franc had lost 10 per cent. Probably this reflected the reaction of speculators on the assumption that the rumors of overtures from Germany were only "feathers" put out to catch the wind.

It was five weeks ago that the German government and Reichsbank announced that they would endeavor to "stabilize" the mark on the gold standard.

WALL ST. FEARS NOT WARRANTED
BY BANK REPORTS

BY O. A. MATHER.

Wall street, the center of security market activities, apparently is afraid of prosperity. With every accession to the evidence of reviving business and industry there have been shiverings of doubt over the permanence of this boom and recurrent forebodings of "inflation."

Yesterday brought some dismal misgivings that the spring conference of the Federal reserve board and governors of the reserve banks at Washington next Monday might result in increases in the banks' discount rates. Raising of interest rates is a prime recourse of banks in checking "inflation," but the position is invariably shown by the market's recourse to the central banks' credit facilities.

the lowest aggregate of loans in the middle of January, and the reserve position was the best. The reserve position as a whole maintained its comfortable position. The consolidated statement of the twelve banks shows loans increased $15,928,000, deposits increased $15,928,000, and assets increased $15,928,000. This probably is the best record in the history of the Federal Reserve Bank for the last year. The statement of the Federal Reserve Bank shows that the government securities held by the government were dropping $52,761,000. The net assets were that total earning assets decreased $52,761,000.

Reduction of Reserves. Gold and total reserves reached $3,931,200 and $2,945,000, respectively. Total deposits increased $54,155,000, and the member banks' deposits declined $10,756,000, with government deposits increasing $45,155,000. Federal reserve notes outstanding declined $1,000,000. Federal reserve receipts recorded $11,415,000. The ratio of total reserves to deposits and federal reserve notes liabilities combined rose to 17.7 from 7.6 per cent in the preceding month.

The reserve ratio of the New York City branch fell from 82.4 to 82.2 in the preceding month.

Loans declined $33,445,000, to $1,007,000,000. Deposits of $1,007,000,000, and total earnings assets, $52,000,000. Gold and total reserves expended $1,973,900 and $45,963,000, respectively. Total deposits recorded $125,450,000. The entire amount of $125,450,000 was in deposits of member banks. Federal reserve credits. Federal reserve circulation increased $1,119,000.

Loans in Chicago Expanded.—The reserve ratio of the Chicago Federal Reserve bank, which remained unchanged last week, was 100 per cent. Loans expanded $13,445,000 to $123,849,000, respectively, but total earning assets declined $4,747,000. Gold and total reserves increased $2,554,000 and $5,008,000, respectively. Total deposits expanded $9,450,000, although the member banks' reserve credits declined $3,297,000. The day brought several additional bits of news. The Chicago stock market was down and worsened, weathering mills followed the 100 per cent wage increase announced the preceding day by the American Woolen company. The railroads reported a 100 per cent increase in passenger cars in the week ended March 10, a record of 12,000 cars from the preceding week. There was a drop in coal production in the week ended March 10, and a corresponding week in 1921. Daily iron and steel production in the week ended 5,536 barrels in the week ended March 10 to a total of 1,897,150 barrels.

The Diamond Match company yesterday announced that according to present estimates, its debenture bonds, of which less than $6,000,000 was outstanding Dec. 31, will be called for retirement by Nov. 1, 1918, at 108 and interest thereon expected then to be paid. The company will be offered for subscription to the company's stockholders at par value to provide part of the funds required for redemption.

A. F. Burrows, president of the company, says that part of the needed cash will come from current resources and the balance will be provided either by selling new securities or by increasing the dividend rate or by liquidation of additional assets.

Earns $10.91 a Share.

In its report for the year ended Dec. 31, 1917, the company shows net profits of $1,000,000, or $10.91 a share. Total assets compared with $3.85 in 1916. The income account for the year shows a balance sheet as of Dec. 31, with particulars follow:

Rutland-Lake Michigan Transit Co.

First Mortgage Serial and Sinking Fund 7% Gold Bonds

Series A

Dated April 1, 1923
Due Serially April 1, 1924-1933

Coupon bonds in interchangeable denominations of $1,000, $500 and $100 registerable as to principal. Central Trust Company of Illinois, Chicago, Trustee. Principal and semi-annual interest (April and October 1) payable at the office of the Trustee. Interest payable without deduction of Federal Income Taxes not exceeding 2%. Redeemable on any interest date at the option of the Company on 30 days' prior notice at a premium of 1% for each year or fraction thereof prior to maturity with a maximum premium of 5%. The mortgage provides a minimum annual sinking fund sufficient to retire $27,500 of bonds, plus an additional amount equal to any cash dividend paid in that year upon the common stock of the Company. The sinking fund payments must first be applied to the serial maturity due in that year and the balance to the redemption of bonds of subsequent maturity by purchase or call.

From the letter of Mr. Arthur C. Sullivan, President of the Company, the following salient facts concerning this issue are summarized:

COMPANY: Rutland-Lake Michigan Transit Co. was formed in 1922 by D. Sullivan & Company of Chicago to restore the differential lake-and-rail freight route between Chicago and the East via the Great Lakes and the St. Lawrence River, operated for many years by the Rutland Transit Company in connection with the Rutland Railroad Company at Ogdensburg, N. Y. D. Sullivan & Company have been for over thirty years past the leading steamship managers of Chicago.

SECURITY: The $275,000 Series A First Mortgage Sinking Fund Gold Bonds now offered will be secured by a first mortgage constituting a preferred maritime lien under the Merchant Marine Laws of the United States, on the four ships of the present fleet, namely the Brandon, Bennington, Burlington and Back Bay.

VALUATION: The appraised values of the present fleet as determined by E. Gunnell of the Manitowoc Shipbuilding Company, and by H. N. Herriman of the American Bureau of Shipping, Cleveland, Ohio, aggregate $782,000 with a replacement cost of $1,275,000.

EARNINGS: Based upon the actual experience of the Company in its operations in the Fall of 1922, and upon the experience of the owners of these ships, it is conservatively estimated that the annual gross earnings of the Company will aggregate about $650,000 and the net earnings available for interest about $160,000, or over eight times the maximum interest charges of $19,250 upon this bond issue.

INSURANCE: Full insurance against all marine risks are carried by the Company on its vessels as required by the mortgage securing this issue. Fire and hull insurance aggregate $730,000, or over two and one-half times this bond issue, the policies being deposited with the Trustee for the benefit of the bondholders.

The Company's accounts are audited by Arthur Andersen & Co., Chicago. All legal matters are subject to the approval of Mr. Charles E. Pain, counsel for the Company, and of Kelley, David & Cottrell, Admiralty Lawyers of Cleveland, Ohio, counsel for the bankers.

These bonds are offered subject to prior sale, when, as and if issued and received by us.

Enthusiastic Crowd Sees Second Night of Rapid Fire Boxing in The Tribune's Amateur Tournament

BACK TO DREAMLAND. M. Krauer, representing Ferretti's gym, put Joseph Lewis, representing the Dreamland A. A., to sleep in the first round of their bout in The Tribune amateur boxing tournament at Ashland Boulevard auditorium last night.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT. Sam Carlina of the Mephisto Orioles A. C. sent Joseph Pill, representing the Central A. C., to the canvas in their bout in The Tribune tournament. The next round saw Pill up and at him again.

RADICALS GIRD
FOR CIVIL WAR
GERMANY TOLDFood Riots to Open
Revolt-Severing.

BY JOHN CLAYTON.

(Chicago Tribune Foreign News Service)
Copyright, 1923, by The Chicago Tribune
BERLIN, March 23.—Picturing new revolution in the making, Herr Severing, Prussian minister of the interior, issued a proclamation today demanding that they identify themselves as the right radical movement in their districts.

Herr Severing asserted that the factories would soon be forced to close down. He insisted that the right radical parties were ready to take advantage of any move from the such as bread riots and plunder which are certain to follow unemployment, as an excuse for an attempt to overthrow the Socialist republic which is now in power and set up their government.

Make Extensive Arrests.

Herr Severing's proclamation called Berlin out of its complacency.
For two years recurring rumors of revolution from the right or left have been thrown at Berlin's union with their heads. It has come used to them. But Herr Severing's proclamation, followed by extensive arrests this afternoon, driven home the full magnitude of the immediate danger which has been through the union of these nationalist organizations with the freedom party.

During the last month the organization of the "Hundred Bands" has been going on at such a pace that it has been difficult to keep up with it. For every band that was organized the right another was formed by the radicals of both sides to plunge the peaceable parties into civil war and blood.

20,000 More Troops for Ruhr.

PARIS, March 23.—(By Associated Press.)—The French troops in Ruhr will be reinforced by 20,000 within a few days. War Minister last announced today.

French Seize Factories.

DUSSELDORF, March 23.—The occupation of factories whose management have been defiant to the French has begun. The French took possession of the Rheinische warren plant near Düsseldorf, and the pay roll of 125,000,000 marks throwing 1,000 men out of work.

Troops also have moved into shops of Oppenstein & Koppel, Dortmund. This firm is one of the largest wagon makers in Germany.

Work was stopped at once. A number of officials of the shops were arrested.

Planned to Exterminate Cabinet.

In a speech before the Prussian parliament today Herr Severing announced that the cabinet was dissolved and that the members of the projected nationalist government were the political extermination of the Socialist ministers and the creation of a government entirely of the right wing.

Herr Severing declared the plan included economic terrorism, with cutting off of towns from food supplies, political terrorism force the Socialist leaders to flee Berlin, and military terrorism to control the police of the cities.

He said military organizations formed under the guise of the reichswehr commanders refused to take part in the plot, but several actual reichswehr officers were named in the scheme.

Involves Ludendorff.

He said arrangements had been made between Lieut. Roedel,
Gen. Ludendorff, and Herr Severing for cooperation in the project.

The danger has by no means been averted by the arrests of Roedel and others. It has only been brought into the open and perhaps been temporarily delayed. Communist bands and national movements who are not quite satisfied with the present Socialist government, are organizing their organization work.

In Saxony the organization of a "protection" army is a feature of the new government program. In Saxony, Thuringia, and other states, the shirts are meeting for under arms. Not far from the eyes of the country of whom sympathies are leaning.

Some men do not represent the movement, as page 10, column 2.
